Education

Doctor of Philosophy – The University of Alabama, December, 2006

Major: Exercise Physiology

Minor: Biochemistry/Molecular Biology

Minor: Educational Research Statistics

Dissertation Title: Influence of Carbohydrate Electrolyte and Water

Consumption on Urine

Production with Metered and Bolus Rehydration

Master of Arts – The University of Alabama, May, 2003

Major: Exercise Physiology

Thesis Title: Test-Retest Reliability of a Recovery Measure Following

Acute Bouts of Resistance Training in Trained College-Aged Males

Bachelor of Science – Southeast Missouri State University, May, 2001

Major: Fitness and Sports Medicine

Professional Experience

2007- Present

Professor, Department of Kinesiology and Health Science

Stephen F. Austin State University

- Undergraduate/Graduate Teaching
- Director- Human Performance Lab
- Graduate Assistant Coordinator
- Graduate Program Coordinator
- Research, Scholarly Activity, Service

Teaching Responsibilities:

- Exercise Physiology
- Graduate Exercise Physiology
- Fitness Appraisal and Prescription
- Advanced Exercise Testing (Field & Clinical)
- Laboratory Techniques
- Concepts of Fitness Education
- Graduate Seminar

2001- 2007

Graduate Teaching Assistant, Department of Kinesiology

The University of Alabama.

- Undergraduate Teaching
- Research Assistance
- Coordinator; Human Performance Lab

Teaching Responsibilities:

- Ecological Approach to Health and Wellness
- Applied Biomechanics
- Exercise Physiology
- Beginning Weight Training
- Softball
- Physical Conditioning

- 2001-2007 (Quality Engineering) 3PEC, Bessemer Alabama (2007); (Carpentry) Mills Craftsmanship, Tuscaloosa Alabama (2005-2006); (Commercial Painting) Strickland Painting, Tuscaloosa Alabama (2002-2004); (Drywall) Stowers Construction, Columbia Missouri. (2001)
- 2000- 2001 Performance Enhancement/ Physical Therapy Assistant (Internship) St. Francis Medical Rehabilitation Center, Cape Girardeau, Missouri. (December 2000 – March 2001).
- Implement rehabilitation programs for various individual injuries.
 - Training of athletes to enhance performance (Frappier Acceleration Program).
 - Development of Post-Training Regimen for exiting athletes.
- 1999- 2001 Lab Assistant, Southeast Missouri State University.
- Lab maintenance and operations
 - Data collection
 - Fitness assessments and evaluations.
