I. Course Description:

Integrating Middle Grades Learning - Two semester hours for lecture. Middle Grades curriculum, instruction and assessment designed to meet the needs of students in content area classes. The professional roles and responsibilities of teaching are also emphasized.

II. Intended Learning Outcomes/Goals/Objectives (Program/Student Learning Outcomes):

The mission of this course is to prepare competent, successful, careful, caring, and enthusiastic professional educators dedicated to responsible service, leadership and continued professional and intellectual development. The dispositions of service, openness to diversity, collaboration, integrity, academic excellence, and lifelong learning will be emphasized. They provide coherence for our curriculum, clinical experiences, and assessments. The course is linked to the University vision and values, and demonstrates how those values translate into knowledge, skills, and dispositions in the College of Education. It is this philosophy and vision that helps to distinguish our graduates from those of other institutions. Special emphasis is placed on dispositions, assessment, professional development, classroom management and effective lesson design and implementation in this course.

VI. Readings (Required and recommended—including texts, websites, articles, etc.):

Required: Live Text FEM Add-On
In this course you must purchase and activate the LiveText add-on, Field Experience Module (FEM), PRIOR to your first day of field experience. Failure to purchase and activate the account and/or submit the required assignments within the FEM system may result in course failure. FEM must be purchased from www.livetext.com for a fee of $18.00.

Reading List: Choose at least 1

Supplementary Textbooks: (not required)

This we believe: Keys to educating young adolescents (2010). Westerville, Ohio: Association of Middle Level Education

Revised by C. Whitley, Aug. 2017
FEM Statement:
In this course you must purchase and activate the LiveText add-on, Field Experience Module (FEM) PRIOR to your first day of field experience/clinical teaching. Failure to purchase and activate the account and/or submit the required assignment(s) within the FEM system may result in course failure. FEM must be purchased from www.livetext.com for a fee of $18.00.

LiveText Statement:
This course uses the LiveText management system to collect critical assessments for students who are Perkins College of Education majors (undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral) or majors in other colleges seeking educator certification through Perkins College of Education. Students who do not have an existing LiveText account will receive an access code via the SFA email system within the first week of class. You will be required to register your LiveText account and do not receive an e-mail concerning LiveText registration, please be sure to check your junk mail folder and your spam filter for these e-mails.

If you have questions about obtaining or registering your LiveText account, call ext. 1267 or email SFALiveText@sfasu.edu. Failure to activate the account and/or submit the required assignments within the LiveText System may result in course failure.

VII. Course Evaluations:
"Near the conclusion of each semester, students in the Perkins College of Education electronically evaluate courses taken within the PCOE. Evaluation data is used for a variety of important purposes including: 1. Course and program improvement, planning, and accreditation; 2. Instruction evaluation purposes; and 3. Making decisions on faculty tenure, promotion, pay, and retention. As you evaluate this course, please be thoughtful, thorough, and accurate in completing the evaluation. Please know that the PCOE faculty is committed to excellence in teaching and continued improvement. Therefore, your response is critical!"

In the Perkins College of Education, the course evaluation process has been simplified and is completed electronically through MySFA. Although the instructor will be able to view the names of students who complete the survey, all ratings and comments are confidential and anonymous, and will not be available to the instructor until after final grades are posted.

VIII. Student Ethics and Other Policy Information:
Class Attendance and Excused Absence: Policy 6.7
It is expected that you work online in the class each week. Failure to log into the class during each week will result in an absence. Students with more than 3 absences will not pass the course. If there are extenuating circumstances, please contact the instructor as soon as possible.

Regular, punctual attendance, documented participation, and completion of assignments are expected at all classes, laboratories, and other activities for which the student is registered. Based on university policy, failure of students to adhere to these requirements shall influence the course grade, financial assistance, and/or enrollment status. The instructor shall maintain an accurate record of each student’s attendance and participation in approved university-sponsored events. However, students are responsible for notifying their instructors in advance, when possible, for excusable absences. Whether absences are excused or unexcused, a student is still responsible for all course content and assignments. Students with accepted excuses may be permitted to make up work for up to three weeks of absences during a semester depending on the nature of the missed work. Make-up work must be completed as soon as possible after returning from an absence.

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities: Policy 6.1 and 6.6
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room...
325, 468-3004/468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

Student Academic Dishonesty: Policy 4.1
Abiding by university policy on academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students.

Definition of Academic Dishonesty
Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to: (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism.

Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are but not limited to:
(1) submitting an assignment as if it were one’s own work when it is at least partly the work of another person.
(2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from the Internet or another students
(3) (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one’s paper or presentation without giving the author due credit.

Penalty for Academic Dishonesty
Penalties may include, but are not limited to reprimand, no credit for the assignment or exam, resubmission of the work, make-up exam, failure of the course, or expulsion from the university.

Student Appeals
A student who wishes to appeal decisions related to academic dishonesty should follow procedures outlined in Academic Appeals by Students (6.3)

Withheld Grades Semester Grades: Policy 5.5
At the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes and F, except as allowed through policy [i.e. Active Military Service (6.14)]. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Student Code of Conduct: Policy 10.4
Classroom behavior should not interfere with the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to learn from the instructional program. Unacceptable or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic or other penalties. This policy applies to all instructional forums, including electronic, classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. Students who do not attend class regularly or who perform poorly on class projects/exams may be referred to the iCare:
IX. Other Relevant Course Information:

Expectations:
1. Future teachers are held accountable for correct spelling and grammar usage. Spelling and correct grammar are expected at all times, on all assignments. Points will be deducted for incorrect spelling and poor grammar. If you are experiencing difficulty with standard English and the conventions of speaking and writing, you should seek assistance at the campus Academic Resource Center. Call 468-4108. You may also visit the following website for assistance in writing: www.columbia.edu/acis/bartleby/strunk
2. All submitted work must be typed unless the instructor provides a template (i.e., in-class assignments). Handwritten work will not be accepted.
3. In order to pass this course ALL WORK must be completed and submitted to the instructor.
4. All work should be completed by the due date. The grade for all work turned in within 1 week of the due date will be penalized by 10%. The grade for all work turned in within 2 weeks of the due date will be penalized by 20%. After two weeks, work must be completed and turned in, but will receive a grade of 0. Any exceptions must be approved ahead of time by the professor.
5. Students are expected to participate in all class discussions. Participation will be noted according to the depth and comprehension of your responses during class discussions. Participation will contribute to your final professionalism grade (8 points max).

Professionalism:
Enthusiastic completion of the course activities is of utmost importance in demonstrating commitment to becoming a responsible teacher. Mastery and professional products reflect quality work and reflect on the work you will produce as a teacher. Attitude and confidentiality are essential in determining the teacher’s potential as a successful educator.
Gossiping is a reflection of negativism, lack of maturity, and integrity. If problems occur, go to your university professor; you will find that others' attitudes are easily influenced through negativity.

For Spring 2018 Student Teaching, the following dates have been established:
1. Currently – On-line application available
2. September 15, 2017 – Deadline for submitting on-line application
3. January 15, 2018 - Passing scores on the content area certification exam must be received in the Educator Certification Office
