(Points will be deducted for the BEFORE NEXT CLASS assignments and in class assignments for those who have unexcused absences. There is no make-up for points for the unexcused absences.)

It is important that you come to class prepared and actively participate throughout our time together. You may have required readings to complete prior to some of our class sessions and at times, you will be asked to bring items to use for assignments related to class participation.

I ask that you respect the time of others in the class, turn off your cellphones, and leave the room if you need to use them for personal reasons. If cellphones or other devices are used during class for personal reasons, points will be deducted, therefore, please excuse yourself from class if there is an emergency that cannot wait until break for you to call/reply.
In addition, any points deducted for attendance issues will occur in this grade section. There are 15 weeks this semester and we only meet one day per week, therefore, after the second unexcused absence, the third unexcused absence will result in a letter grade reduction for the final grade (ex. Final grade is 83, due to 3rd unexcused absence the new final grade is 73). See absence policy for more information.

TOTAL: 160 points

Technology – Although this is not an online course, this class requires the use of D2L. You will navigate web sites and video links. Additionally, you may use Word and PowerPoint for your assignments. You are encouraged to use all the Word tools for editing purposes. You will need Adobe and PowerPoint Readers at the least.

IV. Evaluation and Assessments (Grading):

Rubrics for Grading Assignments: Rubrics for assignments in this course are reviewed in class prior to each assignment. It is recommended that you review each rubric prior to completing and submitting any assignment so you are clear on how you will be graded for that assignment. After reviewing each rubric, you can access them on the d2L course by clicking on the OTHER RESOURCES tab and selecting RUBRICS. Preview the appropriate rubric for the assignment you are working on to see the criteria for how the assignment will be graded.

Work Policy:

All assignments and LiveText submissions are expected by the due dates. If you find that you are unable to make a deadline, email the instructor prior to the due date with a legitimate reason for missing the due date. It is at the discretion of the professor to accept the late assignment; however, “technically difficulties” will not be considered a legitimate excuse. An automatic 20% grade deduction will result for any late assignment received within 7 days after the due date. No credit will be given to late assignments submitted a week after the due date. ALL assignments must be attempted to pass this course. The professor reserves the right to lower the final grade by one letter if assignments are not attempted. The professor reserves the right to lower the grade by one letter if assignments are consistently submitted late. Written work in which the use of the English language is not at an acceptable level for a university student will be returned to the student marked "Unacceptable" and a zero assigned.
Attendance Policy:

Regular, punctual attendance, documented participation, and, if indicated in the syllabus, submission of completed assignments are expected in all classes, laboratories, and other activities for which the student is registered. Based on university policy, failure of students to adhere to these requirements shall influence the course grade, financial assistance, and/or enrollment status. The instructor shall maintain an accurate record of each student’s attendance and participation as well as note this information in required reports and in determining final grades. Students may be excused from attendance for reasons such as health, family emergencies, or student participation in approved university-sponsored events. However, students are responsible for notifying their instructors in advance, when possible, for excusable absences. Students must provide appropriate documentation for excused absences. Whether absences are excused or unexcused, a student is still responsible for all course content and assignments. Students with accepted excuses may be permitted to make up work for up to three weeks of absences during a semester or one week of a summer term, depending on the nature of the missed work. Make-up work must be completed as soon as possible after returning from an absence (SFA Policy 6.7). No make-up work will be accepted during Finals Week.

Absences/Tardiness Grading Policy

- Excused absences will not result in loss of points for the daily participation/preparedness grade. Excused absences must have documentation. Calling in “sick” is not considered documentation.
- After the 2nd unexcused absence, any additional unexcused absences will automatically cause a letter grade reduction for the final grade. To avoid unexcused absences, documentation should be provided as soon as the candidate returns to class. Documentation will not be accepted more than a week after the absence.
- Leaving class early will count as an unexcused absence.
- After the first initial tardy and/or leaving class early (without valid documentation), points will be deducted from the professionalism points. A tardy is defined as any time after the official start time of class. Leaving class early or any tardy that results in the candidate missing more than a few minutes of the class will count as an unexcused absence.
- Extra credit assignments are not available for making up points for absences.

VIII. Student Ethics and Other Policy Information:

Class Attendance and Excused Absence: (Policy 6.7):

Regular, punctual attendance, documented participation, and, if indicated in the syllabus, submission of completed assignments is expected at all classes, laboratories, and other activities for which the student is registered. Based on university policy, failure of students to adhere to these requirements shall influence the course grade, financial assistance, and/or enrollment status. The instructor shall maintain an accurate record of each student’s attendance and participation as well as note this information in required reports.
(including the first 12-day attendance report) and in determining final grades. Students may be excused from attendance for reasons such as health, family emergencies, or student participation in approved university-sponsored events. However, students are responsible for notifying their instructors in advance, when possible, for excusable absences. Whether absences are excused or unexcused, a student is still responsible for all course content and assignments. Students with accepted excuses may be permitted to make up work for up to three weeks of absences during a semester or one week of a summer term, depending on the nature of the missed work. Make-up work must be completed as soon as possible after returning from an absence.

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities (Policy 6.1/6.6):

To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004/468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

Academic Dishonesty:

Abiding by university policy 4.1 on academic integrity is a responsibility for all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.

Definition of Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes, but is not limited to:
- using or attempting to use unauthorized materials on any class assignment or exam;
- falsifying or inventing of any information, including citations, on an assignment;
- helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism.

Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were one’s own. Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:
- submitting an assignment as one's own work when it is at least partly the work of another person;
- submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from the Internet or another source;
- incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one's paper or presentation without giving the author credit.

Penalties for Academic Dishonesty

Penalties may include, but are not limited to, reprimand, no credit for the assignment or exam, re-submission of the work, make-up exam, failure of the course, or expulsion from the university.

Student Appeals

A student who wishes to appeal decisions related to academic dishonesty should follow procedures outlined in Academic Appeals by Students (6.3).

Withheld Grades Semester Grades (Policy 5.5):
At the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F, except as allowed through policy (i.e., Active Military Service (6.14). If students register for the same course in future terms, the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Student Code of Conduct (Policy 10.4):

Classroom behavior should not interfere with the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to learn from the instructional program. Unacceptable or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic or other penalties. This policy applies to all instructional forums, including electronic, classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. Students who do not attend class regularly or who perform poorly on class projects/exams may be referred to the icCare: Early Alert Program at SFA.

Information regarding the ICare program is found at https://www.sfasu.edu/judicial/earlyalert.asp or call the office at 936 468 2703.

Acceptable Student Behavior:

Classroom behavior should not interfere with the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to learn from the instructional program (see the Student Conduct Code, policy D-34.1). Unacceptable or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic or other penalties. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including electronic, classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. Students who do not attend class regularly or who perform poorly on class projects/exams may be referred to the Early Alert Program. This program provides students with recommendations for resources or other assistance that is available to help SFA students succeed.
