Welcome to 3-D Design. My name is Jeff Harris.

This Fall semester of 2018 we will be in the sculpture lab for about 2.5 hours at a time. The course number is Art 130.003. The class meets twice a week on Tuesday and Thursday from 11 to 1:40. My office is room number 123. If you need me, send me an email at harrisja4@sfasu.edu or call my office 254-702-1221 and set up an appointment.

Class Description: This is a foundation course in three-dimensional design. This course will deal with the basic elements and principles of design in relation to three-dimensional art. Focusing on volume, line and plane, we will take historical, as well as conceptual, look at the 3-D spaces and objects around us.

Program Learning Outcomes:
- The student will demonstrate an understanding of the elements and principles of design.
- The student will understand their art in an art historical context.
- The student will be equipped to critically analyze their artwork as well as others.
- The student will demonstrate understanding of contemporary art issues.

Student Learning Outcomes:
- Students learn to use and recognize the elements and principles of 3-D design in work.
- Explore various materials as well as working methods and ways of thinking.
- Demonstrate a variety of art making techniques in the construction of 3-D art.
- Effectively apply design principles to a variety of visual expressions and problems.
- Communicate their design concepts clearly through sketches, written, or spoken words.
- Select successful, concept-driven solutions and apply design principles to projects.

Attendance: This is my one pet peeve. You must come to class. If I have to, you have to. Here is my policy: no more than 4 absences will be allowed without penalty. For every absence over 4, you will lose a letter grade. If you miss more than 8, you fail. Tardiness is also a deal breaker, 3 will constitute an absence. This class is easy. Show up and share some time with Jeff.

Accommodation of Disabilities: Rights and Responsibilities of Students.
"In accordance with University policy, students with disabilities who need accommodations are expected to initiate a meeting with the professor immediately upon registering with Disability Services to discuss how accommodations included on the Special Accommodation Request form will be provided. Students with disabilities who may have special needs and have not requested support services should seek assistance through Disability Services."

Office of Disability Services, Human Services Building, Room 325, 468-3004. Once your information is verified, ODS will notify me and outline the accommodations. It is the student’s responsibility to meet with the instructor regarding special issues, advising, and class progress. Make sure to schedule your appointment during office hours.

Medical Conditions: If you have a medical condition please talk to me. If you have special needs, consult me or go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

Grading: You will have 6 large projects consisting of 60% of your grade. You will have 4 smaller projects and quizzes. These will constitute 20% of your grade. You will also have your sketch book which will make up 10%. The final exam will be 10%. You will be graded on effort, creativity, composition, craftsmanship understanding of material and fulfillment of requirements.

Participation: It is important that you actively participate in classroom work, discussions and critiques. Jump in and get your hands dirty!

Grades for finished projects are based on the following criteria:
- Completion and development of the work during each week
- Conceptual and formal accomplishment of the work in response to the proposed objectives
- Level of craft and technical achievement
- Completion of work according to project deadlines
- Creative and original approaches
- Ingenuity
- Diligence

A = Excellent:
- Fully engaged in the process of learning, each assignment demonstrates excellent commitment and effort and a willingness to push yourself to do the very best work.
B+, B = Good:
- Strong effort, good participation, good growth, good quality of work
C+, C = Average:
- Average performance, work and attitude that meet the minimum requirements, effort and quality of work
D+, D = Poor:
- Lack of projects or poor quality, poor participation, poor development of skill, poor effort
F = Failing:
- Lack of projects, missing critique, unacceptable performance

Late projects will not be considered for a grade above a “C”. Incomplete assignments will not be considered for a grade above an “F”

Sketchbooks: For this course, you are required to keep a sketchbook. You are expected to bring this sketchbook to each class and in it you should keep all your research, drawings, plans, notes on group discussions, interesting anecdotes, suggested artist names, assignment due dates, and notes on techniques/processes that we review during class. Your sketchbook is THE place for creativity as well as a great way to document your journey through life.

Reading Assignments: There is no specific text for this class but reading assignments may be given.

General Information: This can be a messy class. Wear the right clothing and be sure to keep it clean.
Lockers are available. Headphone use will be limited to one earbud and must be at a volume as to not disturb others in the room. During class, cell phones should be used only in emergency. If you need anything, ask. I’m here to help.

The instructor reserves the right to change, delete, or add to the course requirements and schedule at any time.
