Classroom Meeting Schedule and Location

ROOM 471, Ferguson Bldg. TTh: 12:30-1:45

Textbooks

Some of you may be using the 10th edition and while I would not advise that course of action, you should be able to survive.

Course Description:

Analysis of the substantive law of crime and defenses.
Course Objectives:

The student should be able to recognize sources of our criminal law including the common law

The student should understand the principles and characteristics of the common law and Model Penal Code including the goals of the criminal justice system, i.e. punishment, deterrence and rehabilitation; the different ways of classifying crimes, establishing culpability, parties to crimes, defenses to crime and the elements of specific crimes

The student should be able to apply all of the above to specific fact situations

Program Learning Outcomes:

The student will demonstrate an understanding of the court system of the United States in terms of structure, constitutional issues and historical precedents.

The student will demonstrate an awareness of ethical issues in criminal justice, and how to use ethical reasoning to formulate decisions and promote organizational and professional trust.

Student Responsibility

You retain the responsibility to regulate your behavior in a manner that will be conducive to learning and attaining a passing grade for this course. You are expected to comply with the general rules of civility:

-You are expected to attend class regularly, on time and PREPARED for discussion of the assigned material
- No cell phones
- No hats, caps, etc.
- No bare midsections
- No underwear showing, No pants at half-mast

You are REQUIRED to read your textbook in order to discuss the concepts therein. You are REQUIRED to participate in class discussions, and while you are free to express your personal views, you must also respect the views of others. I maintain the right to terminate any discussion that is becoming disruptive to the learning process.

You retain the responsibility to make notification of special needs and/or circumstances to the University, Department Chair, and to me. If you are having a problem in this class which you believe I am responsible for please advise me of same prior to discussing it with anyone else, so that perhaps we can resolve it together. I can assure you that I cannot fix it if I don’t know it’s broken.

Because you are an adult, I will not discuss your class business with your parents or guardians.

Tardiness is unacceptable. If you arrive late, please enter quietly, sit in the rearmost available seat. If there is an exam I progress, you will not be allowed to complete it at that time. If your tardiness persists, (3x or more) you will be asked to meet with me during office hours to discuss the issue and you may be asked to drop the class.

Acceptable Student Behavior

Classroom behavior should not interfere with the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to learn from the instructional program (see the Student Conduct Code, policy D-34.1). Unacceptable or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic or other penalties. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including electronic, classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. Students who do not attend class regularly or who perform poorly on class projects/exams may be referred to the Early Alert Program. This program provides students with recommendations for resources or other assistance that is available to help SFA students succeed.

Course Presentation

This course will be more valuable to you if it is something more than a lecture class. I will adapt to your level of participation and interest. (This should be interpreted by you to mean that lively discussion of the material is much preferred). Preparation before you come to class is necessary. You must read every day and prepare an outline of each chapter as you go along. If you do the reading, prepare and outline of each chapter and come to class prepared for discussion every day you should have no problem with this class. If you do not do those things it will be frustrating to you and result in a grade you will not be happy with in the end.

ASSESSMENT

You will have 4 exams; each represents 20% of your final grade.

20% of your grade is based upon your participation in class and is mostly subjectively determined by me. Participation includes, but is not limited to, attendance.

TENTATIVE EXAM SCHEDULE AND MATERIAL.
Exam #1 September 20, Chapters 1-3

Exam #2 October 17, Chapter 4-6

Exam #3 November 29, Chapters 7-9

Exam #4 Final Exam 1-9

Final Exam Week of December 10. See University Schedule

Missed Examinations

You are required to provide excuses in order to take a make-up examination. All make ups will be required to be taken within 2 class days of the date you missed.

Academic Integrity (A-9.1)

Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.

Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to:

(1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class;

(2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise, and/or

(3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words of ideas of another person as if they were your own.

Examples are:

(1) submitting an assignment as if it were one’s own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another

(2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source, and

(3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one’s paper without giving the author due credit.

Any such occurrences will be dealt with according to University policy, provided to you in your student handbook. (A-9.1) Specifically, we will first meet together to discuss same in my office where you will be given the opportunity to explain your position. If it is determined that academic dishonesty has occurred, I will then make a decision as to the penalty therefor. Penalties may include reprimand or no credit for the assignment or exam, or re-submission of the paper, or make-up exam, or failure of the course. I will then refer the incident to the Chair of the Department and the Dean of the College. This Report of Academic Dishonesty form, along with supporting documentation shall be made a part of the student’s record and remains on file with the Dean’s office for at least four (4) years. A second or subsequent offense shall be referred to the Committee on Academic Integrity pursuant to policy.

Please read the complete policy at http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/academic_integrity.asp

Withheld grades Semester Grades Policy (A-54)

Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Students with Disabilities

To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, Room 325, 468-3004/468-1004(TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disability service/.
