COURSE DESCRIPTION
Study and application of the writing process and the skills of writing with a focus on analytical reading and writing. Essay assignments address rhetorical analysis and evaluation and critical responses to close readings of texts. Must earn a grade of C or higher to be admitted to English 132.

The main focus in this class will be on mental illness. This course will challenge our knowledge on what mental illness is and will hopefully paint a clearer picture on the different kinds that exist in our society.

COURSE OUTCOMES
This course has been selected to be part of Stephen F. Austin State University’s core curriculum. The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board has identified six objectives for all core courses: Critical Thinking Skills, Communication Skills, Empirical and Quantitative Skills, Teamwork, Personal Responsibility, and Social Responsibility. SFA is committed to the improvement of its general education core curriculum by regular assessment of student performance on these six objectives.

Assessment of these objectives at SFA will be based on student work from all core curriculum courses. This student work will be collected in D2L through LiveText, the assessment management system selected by SFA to collect student work for core assessment. LiveText accounts will be provided to all students enrolled in core courses through the university technology fee. You will be required to register your LiveText account and you will be notified how register your account through your SFA e-mail account. If you forward your SFA e-mail to another account and do not receive an e-mail concerning LiveText registration, please be sure to check your junk mail folder and your spam filter for these e-mails. If you have questions about LiveText call Ext. 1267 or emailSFALiveText@sfasu.edu.

ENGLISH PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES
This is a general education core curriculum course and no specific program learning outcomes for this major are addressed in the course.

ENGLISH 131 LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of English 131, the student should have:

✓ Identify and analyze texts with the goal of examining the rhetorical structure, veracity of claims, sufficient use of accurate and credible evidence, as well as possible use in creative, analytical, and persuasive components (Critical Thinking);
✓ Participate in productive class and group discussion and examination of texts, in order to analyze and synthesize a variety of texts, via a multi-step drafting process (Critical Thinking);
✓ Understand the role of personal responsibility in the inevitable choices involved in the composition process, in the evaluation of one's own writing and the writing of other students, in the ethical use of ideas and information, and in the critical evaluation of all assigned texts (Personal Responsibility);
✓ Recognize the collaborative and social aspects of the writing process by producing collaborative work and/or feedback for peers and selectively using peer feedback in their own work (Teamwork);
✓ Demonstrate knowledge of organizational and linguistic structures – including grammar, punctuation, and spelling – through practice in composing and revising (Communication);
✓ Compose texts in response to a variety of situations and contexts calling for purposeful shifts in voice, tone, level of formality, design, medium, and/or structure (Communication).

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY (A-9.1)
Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.

DEFINITION OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY
Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one's own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one's paper without giving the author due credit. Please read the complete policy at http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/academic_integrity.asp

WITHHELD GRADES SEMESTER GRADES POLICY (A-54)
Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

COURSE POLICIES

✓ Adults make arrangements.

✓ Electronics are not permitted in class. Laptops will be allowed on draft or research days. If you are found using your laptop for something other than class purposes (social media, homework for another class, etc) you will be given a warning; if you continue, then you will be asked to leave and will be marked absent. Earbuds/headphones are not allowed.

If you are expecting an important phone call or if there is an extenuating circumstance, such as sick children, and need to leave your phone on your desk, please speak with me before class. If you need to answer an emergency phone call, please step out of the classroom so as not to disturb or disrespect your classmates.

✓ Do not bring noisy or smelly snacks to class. Please be mindful and respectful to your fellow classmates. You may bring drinks to class, but keep in mind that you will have to clean it up if you spill it. You must bring drinks with some sort of lid on the cup or bottle.

✓ Please don’t interrupt me or your classmates. It is rude to do so. If you’d like to add to the conversation, please raise your hand. During discussion, be respectful of one another. Do not speak over another person, wait for them to finish, then you may speak. If you become disrespectful and overly disruptive during the discussion you will be asked to leave and marked absent.

✓ Sleeping, daydreaming, doing homework for another class, talking to classmates about something unrelated to the classroom conversation, and not paying attention are not allowed.

✓ If you need to contact me by e-mail, please put ENG 131 and your section number in the subject line. I DO NOT accept assignments by e-mail unless I specifically give you permission to do so. Please be professional. I will not respond to e-mails that are written poorly and/or written disrespectfully. DO NOT e-mail me through D2L because I may not check it. After 5 pm or on weekends I will not be checking/or responding to emails. So, if you need to contact me, make sure to do it before 5 pm or before the weekend.

ATTENDANCE & PUNCTUALITY

Attendance is mandatory. In order to be successful, you will need to attend class regularly, arrive prepared and on time and stay for the duration of the class. Three (3) tardies will count as one absence.
You are allowed three (3) excused and/or unexcused absences before your grade is affected. After the third absence, you will be docked one final letter grade. For example, if your GPA for the class is 86, and you miss five classes your final grade will be reduced by 20 points to a 66.

Students with more than seven (7) absences, whether excused or unexcused, who fail to drop the course will receive a final grade of F. Excused absences include family emergencies, university sanctioned events, and extreme medical emergencies, such as hospitalization. All excused absences must have proper documentation (e-mails do not count). Missing class for any reason will not excuse you from homework and/or major assignment deadlines. You must return to class prepared for that day’s discussion.

Sleeping in class is unacceptable. If caught sleeping, you will receive one warning; afterward, you will be counted absent.

Texting in class is unacceptable. If caught texting (or on your phone for any reason unless directed to by me), you will receive one warning; afterward, you will be counted absent.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS
One letter grade will be docked for each day the assignment is late. Essays should never be left under my office door.

University policy excuses students for serious personal illness requiring hospitalization and family emergencies such as a death in the immediate family. You will be responsible for providing satisfactory documentation for such situations. Extensions for major assignments will be left to my discretion, but you must see me at least three days prior to the due date with proper documentation.

REQUIRED TEXTS
Swallow Me Whole by Nate Powell – ISBN: 1603090339

GRADES AND EVALUATION
Assignments – Each assignment is due at the beginning of class. You must turn in a hard copy at the beginning of class AND submit all major essays online to D2L. If you fail to turn in one or both, 10 points will be deducted each day it is late, including weekends. There will be a separate Dropbox folder in D2L for each major essay assignment. Instructions will be given for the process and not knowing how to submit to D2L Dropbox WILL NOT serve as an acceptable excuse for not turning in these assignments.

Personal Narrative – This Personal Narrative’s purpose is to be expressive and detailed in writing. This assignment allows you to reflect on certain events involving mental illness in your own lives or in lives around you. Must be between 500-700 words. More details and expectations for the assignment will be made available separately at a later date. Due Date: September 21.
Complaint Letter – This is the only assignment that will not deal directly with a mental illness. This assignment will be a complaint about the topic of your choosing. More details and expectations for the assignment will be made available separately at a later date. The review needs to be between 400-500 words. Due date: October 3.

Review – This review will be about a movie/TV show/Book/YouTube video that deals with mental illness. The purpose is to review how well the movie incorporated the mental illness, as well as how accurate they displayed the illness. A brief synopsis of the movie will need to be included (1-2 sentences). More details and expectations for the assignment will be made available separately at a later date. The review needs to be between 400-500 words. Due date: October 15.

Literary Analysis – This essay will focus on Swallow Me Whole. You will write an analysis of the novel. The purpose of this essay is for you to be able to read a text closely, derive meaning from it and be able to express your thoughts and ideas in an eloquent manner. This essay will be 1000-1200 words in length. More details and expectations for the assignment will be made available separately at a later date. Due date: November 5.

Persuasive Essay – In this essay you will be trying to persuade me to your stand on using medicine to treat mental illness. Should medicine be used? Are their other ways to treat without using medicine that could potentially harm your body more? You will need at least four scholarly sources incorporated in essay. This essay will need to be 1500-1700 words. More details and expectations for the assignment will be made available separately at a later date. Due Date: December 5.

Peer Review – Peer review is an important asset that should be taken advantage of in this course. There will be only one peer review, which is listed on the course calendar, and it is mandatory. Peer comments and suggestions will be due with the final draft of each assignment. Although peer reviews count only as a daily grade, you will receive a zero if you fail to participate or turn in your comments.

Conferences – Students will meet with me for at least one mandatory conference that will take place near the end of the semester. If you fail to appear for your conference, you will be counted absent for the day. Details will be provided as the dates approach.

Quizzes – You will sometimes receive quizzes over assigned readings and class discussions, so come to class prepared. They will not always be announced.

Final Exam – Using the skills you’ve acquired over the course of the semester, you will write an essay during the scheduled final exam period. Details and materials will be discussed as the date approaches.

Extra Credit – A substantial visit to the AARC will award you five extra points to one major essay grade. Utilization of the resources available to you are an important part of your education. Attach the pink slip to your final draft. Additional opportunities for extra credit may arise over the course of the semester.

All assignments must adhere to MLA guidelines, meaning 1-inch margins on all sides, appropriate headers, double-spaced, written in 12-point Times New Roman, with Works Cited (if required) attached. Each assignment must meet the assignment requirements for page length and source requirement. Failing to do so will result in a SIGNIFICANT drop in your grade. Individual assignment sheets will be provided with further details.

All assignments file submission should first contain your last name. Here is an example: GarrettRhetoricalEssay
