Course Description
This course is the first semester of the four-semester aural skills sequence, and involves skill development in the areas of ear training, rhythm reading, and sight singing.

Course Outcomes
This course will examine various aspects of aural skills including interval, chordal, melodic, rhythmic, and harmonic dictation; and sight-singing and rhythmic reading. It will also include basic keyboard understanding and skills.

Grading Policy
Homework/In class participation 10%
Auralia 30%
Dictation Exams (Final counts as double) 30% Sight Singing Exams (Final counts as double) 30%

Minimum Grades and Sequencing of Music Theory Courses: The SFASU School of Music handbook states: “Courses required to be taken concurrently (MTC 151 & 161; MTC 152 & 162; MTC 251 & 261; and MTC 252 & 262) most BOTH be passed with a minimum grade of “C” before moving on to the next two courses. Thus, students who meet the minimum requirements in only one of the two courses may NOT move on to the next level until the deficiency is rectified.

Attendance
Every student is expected to attend class. Students are allowed only 3 unexcused absences. Excused absences are for reasons such as illness with a doctor’s note, family emergency, or a University sanctioned event. 10% of your grade is participation. If you are not in class, you cannot participate and therefore will receive a zero for the day. Makes-ups will only be given for EXCUSED absences or in extreme cases. Contact me ASAP.

Homework
Homework assignments are due the next class period unless otherwise indicated. No late homework will be accepted. Most assignments will be to prepare a sight singing exercise to be heard during the next class. However, there will be some written assignments. There will also be weekly online assignments due by each Friday.

Academic Integrity (A-9.1)
Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.

Definition of Academic Dishonesty Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one's own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one's paper without giving the author due credit.

Please read the complete policy at

Withheld Grades Semester Grades Policy (A-54) Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Students with Disabilities
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to
