Course Description: Application of communication theory to the interactions between individuals of different cultures.

Course Objectives:
Welcome to Intercultural Communication! In this course, we will increase our understanding of our own cultural position and basic concepts, principles, and skills regarding communication between persons from different cultural, racial, and ethnic backgrounds. This class explores issues currently being debated in the U.S. society.

Required textbooks:

How the course is conducted
This course is modular and conducted completely online. There are no face-to-face meetings for this course. The course timeline describes the time frame and activities required for course completion. Activities for each module are due by the ending date of that module.

Program Learning Outcomes
Students majoring in Communication Studies will be able to demonstrate oral and written competence in logical and critical thinking.

Student Learning Outcomes
1. Become familiar with the study of intercultural communication from the traditional social psychological perspective, the interpretive perspective, and the more recent critical perspective.
2. Discover the importance of the roles of context and power in studying intercultural communication.
3. Become more sensitive to the complexity of intercultural interactions.
4. Recognize the influence of their own cultural groups on intercultural communication interactions.
5. Become more willing, self-reflective, flexible, and open communicators in intercultural communication interactions.
Academic Integrity (A-9.1)
Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.

Definition of Academic Dishonesty
Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one's own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one's paper without giving the author due credit. Please read the complete policy at http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/academic_integrity.asp

Withheld Grades Semester Grades Policy (A-54)
Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Students with Disabilities
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/. Once this has been completed, please schedule an appointment with me so we can work out specifics about the accommodations needed.

Student Support
Should you have technical questions regarding part of the course requirements, please visit the Online Orientation at http://www.sfaonline.info/supportandtutorials-. If you still need help, please contact SFA Online at 936.468.1919.
Participation
Course participation is important for the success of the class. Sharing your experience and perspective with the rest of the class improves the quality of class discussion and makes the class more meaningful and enjoyable for everyone. You are expected to complete all class activities and assigned reading. Late work will only be accepted at the instructor's discretion and only within one week of missing the assignment.

Grades are not negotiable. Every student is graded by the same rubric, so never ask me to raise a grade, as it would create an issue of discrimination. See grading criteria later in this syllabus.

Learning Assumptions and Expectations:
I have a number of assumptions about your participation in this course.
- It is my belief that what you as a student get out of this course depends upon what you put in it as well as the extent to which you are willing to critically assess your own beliefs and assumptions.
- Respect is one of the foundations of an environment conducive to learning. In this class, I have a commitment to creating a positive and respectful learning environment. I expect all of us to contribute to a productive and thought-provoking learning environment, valuing each of our strengths and differences. In discussions, everyone should be courteous and respectful of others; no rude, sexist, racist, or other disrespectful or offensive comments or behavior will be acceptable.
- I have high standards for excellent work. To earn good grades you will need to work hard and do excellent work. Hard work is necessary, but not sufficient to receive good grades.
- The assignments in this course are designed to challenge you and help you learn.
- Discussions will build from the chapters, modules lectures and included readings. So it is necessary that you complete the readings before the assigned date. You will be responsible for the content at all times.
- I am committed to helping you to learn. Please ask questions and let me know how I can support you. However, also recognize that there is some inherent ambiguity in education - there is no one right way to do most things! I may not always give you a concrete definitive answer to your questions.

Instructor Responsibility
In this course, the instructor is responsible for:
- responding in a timely manner (within 24 – 48 hours) to student emails except weekends.
- responding in a timely manner (within a week) to quizzes and exams.
- responding in a timely manner (within a week) to essays and assignments or other written work submitted except holidays.
- responding in a timely manner (within a week) to discussion board posts.

Guide to writing discussion posts:

There are five things I look for in the discussions.

1. The discussion posts address the questions raised in that discussion adequately including relevant definitions and examples from the course perspective - Remember, whenever you are talking about an issue in the discussions, you are always doing so in the context of this course – intercultural communication.
2. Whether the student is responding to other students' posts in a meaningful manner - If the student simply agrees with another student, then that is not meaningful. The student needs to demonstrate understanding of the issue raised by fellow student and has to make clear WHY he/she agrees or disagrees with the post of fellow student. At least two responses other than your own post is required.
3. Whether the example given is creative, relevant and demonstrates outside research to the issue or tangential - Sometimes, students would give examples that are far-fetched and don't really address the question or issue being discussed. You need to show that you are bringing in your own experiences and other researched material to the discussion.

4. How does your post compare with those of your group's posts - If you write a post that satisfies all the things I have mentioned in the first three points and yet falls far below the depth and quality of posts by members in your group, those members will earn higher grades than you would.

5. In order for your group members to respond to your posts, you need to post in a timely manner – Your first post should be at least a day before the deadline. If you are habitually posting really close to the 10 pm deadlines, then you will not get full credit for the posts.

Note: If no one else posts, you'll be graded on the quality of your post. Your grades will not suffer due to the non-participation of other group members. :)

Also, make sure you type the post in a .doc file and then copy and paste it on the discussion board. This practice protects you from losing your work in case of any technology failure.

Success in Assignments and Essays:

All papers must be double-spaced, 12 font, Times New Roman

As you go through the modules, the instructions for the assignments/reflections will be embedded in those modules. For example, in module 4, the reflection assignment instruction will have its own page. Then there will be a link to the reflection assignment.

For these assignments, you need to make sure that
- you read the instructions carefully,
- provide adequate definitions and explanations of the concepts you are writing about or identified, referencing the module lectures and your textbook, as well as outside research
- provide adequate examples of the concept and their relevance for the topic being discussed (remember that your examples must relate to communicative phenomenon), and,
- identify outside research about the topic. What are other scholars/experts talking about regarding this issue/concept?
- provide in-text citations and references in APA style format.

I also look for how your assignment compares to the standards set by your peers in the course.

Make sure you type the assignment/reflection in a .doc file and then upload that document to Dropbox. This practice protects you from losing your work in case of any technology failure.

Short Papers and Final Paper Instructions can be found in D2L Modules.

All references should be in APA 6th edition format.
