Course Description

A continuation of Ger 131. Pre-requisite: C in Ger 131 or equivalent.

Program Learning Outcomes

This is a general education core curriculum course. No specific program learning outcomes for a major are addressed in this course.

Student Learning Outcomes/Course Objectives

German 132 is a second semester course that picks up where German 131 left off. A proficiency-oriented communicative language class, the primary goal of German 132 is to help you continue developing your ability to use German to communicate and to do so with good to excellent grammatical and cultural accuracy.

In German 132 you will expand your vocabulary to cover topics of free time activities, music and cultural events, sports and fitness. In reviewing topics from German 131 and in working on these new topics, you will learn more about the accusative case including telling time, discussing dates, and working with weights and measures; you will also learn to use prepositions governed by the accusative case. Using coordinating conjunctions, you will learn to formulate compound sentences, and you will learn several of the more common subordinating conjunctions and how to use them to form complex sentences that use subordinate clauses; this will include a review of the W-Fragen, the question words, and how to use them as subordinating conjunctions. In addition to subordinate word order, you will also learn inverted word order to emphasize specific information in a sentence. German 132 briefly introduces you to the simple past tense of several verbs and then will emphasize the present perfect, commonly referred to as conversational past tense. This will enable to discuss your past activities accurately and in detail. What is more, you will learn to use the informal second person singular and plural pronouns and how to decide whether the formal or informal manners of address are appropriate for any given situation. You will be introduced to the dative case and learn to incorporate indirect objects into your statements as you learn about holiday traditions in the German-speaking countries. Finally, you will begin to learn about the multicultural nature of twenty-first Century Germany.

Course Requirements and Guidelines

Listening and speaking are emphasized in the classroom, with reading and writing done outside of class. You are expected to have studied, completed the exercises and homework for the assigned Teil or Teile in advance of each class meeting. The class periods are designated for answering any questions you may have and primarily for using German communicatively; class periods are not planned for grammar analysis nor for mechanical drill.

Because momentum is an important factor in learning—especially in learning another language—you are strongly advised to do homework and to work on language skills in the LRC on days that class does not meet. This will ensure that you come into contact with German on a daily basis. Specific assignments are outlined in detail in the Kalender part of this syllabus. Specifically, you are given several weeks before the multimedia project is due. This should assure that you have ample time to work on and complete this project to turn in by its due dates.

Required Texts
The materials required to complete Intermediate German II class preparation and homework are available through the Top Hat online textbook. All worksheets for the films and readings as well as other support materials are available for download at the GER232 D2L site. So, while you will not need to purchase a packet containing the course handouts, it is your responsibility to print out the homework pages. Likewise, it is your responsibility to have a copy of the classroom materials, either printed out or pre-loaded onto a tablet or laptop, for use in class meetings. Highly recommended: Zorach and Melin, English Grammar for Students of German is available through amazon.com and other online retailers.

Required Text available through Top Hat
We will be using the Top Hat (https://tophat.com/) classroom response system in class. You will be able to submit answers to in-class questions using Apple or Android smartphones and tablets, laptops, or through text message. Of foremost importance, we will be using the custom-built interactive textbook I created especially for this class within Top Hat. You can visit the Top Hat Overview (https://success.tophat.com/s/article/Student-Top-Hat-Overview-and-Getting-Started-Guide) within the Top Hat Success Center which outlines how you will register for a Top Hat account, as well as providing a brief overview to get you up and running on the system. An email invitation has been sent to you by email, but if did not receive this email, you can register by simply visiting our course website at https://app.tophat.com/e/282170

Note: our Course Join Code is 282170.

Top Hat will require a paid subscription, and a full breakdown of all subscription options available can be found here: www.tophat.com/pricing. You can determine the best subscription option for your needs depending upon the amount of time you wish to have access to the online materials. After you pick your subscription, your textbook will be added at checkout for an additional $40.

Should you require assistance with Top Hat at any time, due to the fact that they require specific user information to troubleshoot issues, please contact their Support Team directly by way of email (support@tophat.com), the in-app support button, or by calling 1-888-663-5491.

Grading: Testing and Evaluation
A. (20%) One fifty-minute mid-term exam, after Kapitel 8 counts 15% toward your total course grade. The mid-term exam is cumulative.

B. (20%) One final examination after Kapitel 10 counts 15% toward your total course grade. The final examination is by nature cumulative.
C. (20%) Short weekly quizzes, scheduled for 10-12 minutes during most Friday class meetings. All of the quizzes together count 15% toward your total course grade. Should you miss or be late to a class meeting, your score for that quiz will be 0. Your lowest two quiz grades will be dropped from your total quiz average.

D. (10%) Multimedia Project will count 10% toward your total course grade. As part of your participation in German class, you will create one multimedia project this semester. The assignment is based on the type of activities we do in class, and will give you the opportunity to use what you are learning in class to share a creative project with your fellow German students. Before you complete the assignment, you will submit a draft of your project, including any spoken script, to your professor for feedback and suggestions.

E. (15%) Written Homework Assignments (Freie Kommunikation) count toward 15% of your total class grade. At the end of almost every Teil is a final assignment entitled Freie Kommunikation. The Freie Kommunikation is your opportunity for responding to situations and questions with your own personal answers. Please turn in the written Freie Kommunikation assignments at the beginning of the class meeting for which it is assigned.

Note that the Freie Kommunikation will be evaluated for evidence of a good faith attempt to correctly use the new grammar being learned. In order to be able to complete the Freie Kommunikation assignments well you first need to complete the Teile assigned in our online workbook. For each Teil assigned, you read that Teil in the 2018 Spr-GER132.002 online workbook and complete the interactive questions as they are assigned in the text. Note that at the end of the semester, you can earn five points toward your final grade for having completed the online assignments fully and on time.

F. (15%) Class Participation counts 15% toward your total course grade. Active participation in class activities is an essential element in learning to speak a new language. You will be expected to ask and respond to questions in German; to work in pairs and small groups, speaking German to acquire factual information, gain new knowledge, share opinions and wishes, and to solve problems. Moreover, class participation includes your willingness to participate in class activities.

C. Homework

Homework is evaluated for completeness and your effort at correct use of German. If you prepare your homework carefully, you can earn from 3 to 8 points for the written homework from each Teil.

Homework may not be counted for complete credit in the following instances: homework that appears to have been directly copied from the website answer key or from another student; work containing responses that appear to be generated by an online translator or a tutor; homework where the open-ended responses are full of errors that are easily avoided if you have thoroughly studied and worked through the Teil. Only homework that is complete, evidences thoughtful responses, and that is turned in on time will be counted toward this portion of your grade!

D. Class Participation

A maximum participation score of 10 points can be earned per 3-day class week. Each week you will receive a participation grade of up to 10 points. You can only accumulate participate points if you are present in class. The following are general guidelines for your participation grade:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Your behavior in class</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>You speak only Germany and speak often during the class period. You participate actively in group work, and volunteer often and in a meaningful way to the class discussion. You listen and respond to other students when appropriate.</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You speak mostly German but do use English on occasion. You speak often during the class period, and participate actively in group work. You volunteer occasionally, and generally listen and respond to other students when appropriate.</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You use quite a bit of English during group work and/or during class discussion or you did not speak very often. You are not engaged in group activities. You do not volunteer during classroom discussion.</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You use more English than German or you do not speak during class. You are not engaged in group activities and/or you are distracting to others or you get off-topic during group activities.</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You chat with classmates, do homework, send and read text messages, sleep, read the paper, daydream or otherwise simply do not participate in class.</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Please note: Should you behave in a disruptive or uncivil manner, the instructor reserves the right to assign a participation grade of "0" for the day.

Policies

Homework, Quizzes, and Exams

All homework is due at the beginning of the class period for which the assignments are given. Unless prior arrangement has been made with the professor for a specific assignment, no late homework will be accepted. Homework includes all activities that are assigned to be completed outside of the class meetings. This means that all preparation for each class meeting is to be completed before class and written work turned in to the instructor at the beginning of each class meeting.

A mid-term is scheduled after Kapitel 7, as outlined in the class Kalender, part of this syllabus. A final exam is scheduled for finals week. With the exception of the first week of classes, there will be short quizzes most Fridays. Please note that if you fail to attend class on the day of a quiz or an exam without having obtained permission in advance from your instructor, you will receive no credit for the quiz or exam missed.

Attendance

Regular attendance to all class meetings is expected and required. German 132 is not an independent study course.

You will be allowed a maximum of four excused absences during the semester without penalty. Only written medical excuses, proof of participation in a university-sponsored activity or proof of a family emergency are considered legitimate excused absences. Beginning with the fourth absence, a penalty of 0.5% will be levied on the earned final grade. While this may seem rather insignificant, it can and sometimes does result in a student receiving a lower grade than expected.

Possible exemptions may be made in the case of students who are hospitalized or who must stay home on the advice of a physician due to an extended illness or in the case of students who must leave the university for a family emergency. In either case, you will have to provide proof of need for such absences.

Tardiness

The equivalent of 1/2 an excused absence will be counted for each time a student reports late to class. After 8 tardies, each additional tardy will be counted as an absence, with the equivalent consequences on the final grade.

Food

You are expected to work on speaking skills in this class. Please do not bring food or drink into the classroom. (One exception is a closed water bottle that is stored in your book bag or other tote.)

Academic Integrity (A-9.1)

Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.

Definition of Academic Dishonesty
Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one's own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one's paper without giving the author due credit.

Please read the complete policy at http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/academic_integrity.asp

Withheld Grades Semester Grades Policy (A-54)
Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms, the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Students with Disabilities
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

Acceptable Student Behavior
Classroom behavior should not interfere with the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to learn from the instructional program (see the Student Conduct Code, policy D-34.1). Unacceptable or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic, or other penalties. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including electronic, classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. Students who do not attend class regularly or who perform poorly on class projects/exams may be referred to the Early Alert Program. This program provides students with recommendations for resources or other assistance that is available to help students succeed.
Remember to study and complete the worksheets for each Teil (Section) assigned before coming to class. Plan to spend at least two to three hours on homework in preparation for each class meeting. Read ahead in the Kalender so that you will be aware of deadlines that are approaching.

As you prepare for each class meeting, check off the assignments as you complete them. This will help you be sure that you are keeping up with everything in a timely manner.

Thorough preparation in advance of each class meeting will assure that you will be able to participate fully in the class activities. The more effort you put into preparing for class and speaking German during our class discussions, the more quickly you will most develop proficiency in German.

At the beginning of each class meeting, turn in the completed Freie Kommunikation for the Teil or Teile that are due on that day.
