Instructor’s Expectations:
It should be understood by all students enrolled in this course that education is not a commodity. Course grades are based on achievement, not effort or time. Students must earn their score in this course based on mastery of the materials and the instructions provided.

Governing Policies: The following policies will apply toward classroom decorum.
1. Desire2Learn (D2L) is accessible at d2l.sfasu.edu using the same username and password as MySFA. To the extent that the instructor uses D2L, students will be accountable for accessing and using the online learning system.
2. ACCEPTABLE STUDENT BEHAVIOR: Classroom behavior should not interfere with the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to learn from the instructional program (see the Student Conduct Code, policy D-34.1). Unacceptable or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic or other penalties. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including electronic, classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. Students who do not attend class regularly or who perform poorly on class projects/exams may be referred to the Early Alert Program. This program provides students with recommendations for resources or other assistance that is available to help SFA students succeed.

3. COURSE ADAPTATIONS: To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

4. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism. Definition of Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one's own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one's paper without giving the author due credit. Please read the complete policy at http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/academic_integrity.asp

6. GRADE WITHHELD POLICY (Semester Grades A-54): II. Withheld Grades: Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

7. MAKE UP AND LATE WORK: The university recognizes three types of absences that can be documented and presented to an instructor for consideration to make up work: 1) personal illness, 2) emergency, and 3) university sponsored event. It is the student’s responsibility to communicate with the course instructor and provide documentation. If the course instructor permits late work based on the merit of the documentation, then the student and instructor will develop a plan and new due date for the work to be completed.

8. ATTENDANCE: Attending and participating in communication courses is expected of all enrolled students as a part of the learning process. An attendance record is maintained of absences that impact students’ grades. Any student who misses 25% or more of scheduled class meetings is subject to course failure.

Evaluation:

Exams: During the course of the semester students will complete exams with questions from our class discussions and information from the Textbook regarding the theories, concepts, and practices of public speaking.

Speeches: During the course of the semester you will be expected to give a variety of speeches with graded outlines. Additional instructions are referenced in the COM 111 Workbook and by the instructor. Outlines are Mandatory!
