I. Course Description:

Modern Postural Yoga is a psychosomatic practice intended to cultivate a heightened awareness of one's body, movements (proprioception), and mind. This course will offer an intellectual, experimental, and contemplative approach to the basics of posture (asana), breathing (pranayama), and meditation. There is a $10 course fee used for the maintenance of equipment.

KINE 200 is a variable credit course of 1-2 semester hours. For each credit hour, class meets for 50-75 minutes each week for 15 weeks. The classes are physical activity based where students may be assigned varying outside class assignments based on the topic which may consist of out of class readings, journaling, topic presentations, studying for exams, and practicing physical skills to achieve proficiency. These outside class assignments would require at least two hours each week for each credit hour.

II. Intended Learning Outcomes/Goals/Objectives:

- Students will engage intellectually, physically, and emotionally with the theory and philosophy of yoga.
- Students will demonstrate an understanding of their own bodies through yoga poses and breathing exercises learned in class.
- Students will perform a variety of yoga poses showing knowledge of proper alignment.
- Students will gain the knowledge and skills required to develop a personal yoga practice.

III. Course Assignments, Activities, Instructional Strategies, use of Technology:

1. Journal Assignments: Regular in class entries will be made to record thoughts and feelings and how they are affecting your personal yoga practice.
2. Journal Paper: A formal paper synthesizing yoga philosophy and your own personal experience with the practice.
3. Open Practice: This will be a class period where the student will go through a personal practice and will be graded on their understanding of poses, breathing techniques, and meditation.

IV. Evaluation and Assessments (Grading):

Attendance and Class Participation 50% Journal Paper 30% Open Practice 20%

- Every student is expected to attend class. Excused absences are for reasons such as illness with a doctor’s note, family emergency, or a University sanctioned event. 50% of your grade is participation. If you are not in class, you cannot participate and therefore will receive a zero for the day.
- Journal papers will be graded on how detailed and specific the personal experience of yoga is expressed, and how clearly the yogic philosophy plays into these experiences.

VI. Course Evaluations:

Near the conclusion of each semester, students in the Perkins College of Education electronically evaluate courses taken within the PCOE. Evaluation data is used for a variety of important purposes including:
1. Course and program improvement, planning, and accreditation;
2. Instruction evaluation purposes; and
3. Making decisions on faculty tenure, promotion, pay, and retention.

As you evaluate this course, please be thoughtful, thorough, and accurate in completing the evaluation. Please know that the PCOE faculty is committed to excellence in teaching and continued improvement. Therefore, your response is critical! In the Perkins College of Education, the course evaluation process has been simplified and is completed electronically through MySFA. Although the instructor will be able to view the names of students who complete the survey, all ratings and comments are confidential and anonymous, and will not be available to the instructor until after final grades are posted.

VII. Student Ethics and Other Policy Information:

Class Attendance and Excused Absence: Policy 6.7

Regular, punctual attendance, documented participation, and, if indicated in the syllabus, submission of completed assignments are expected at all classes, laboratories, and other activities for which the student is registered. Based on university policy, failure of students to adhere to these requirements shall influence the course grade, financial assistance, and/or enrollment status. The instructor shall maintain an accurate record of each student’s attendance and participation as well as note this information in required reports and in determining final grades. Students may be excused from attendance for reasons such as health, family emergencies, or student participation in approved university-sponsored events. However, students are responsible for notifying their instructors in advance, when possible, for excusable absences.

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities: Policy 6.1 and 6.6 To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 936-468-3004 as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F, except as allowed through policy [i.e., Active Military Service (6.14)]. If students repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.
