Course Objectives:
This course will develop students’ knowledge of music theory through weekly homework assignments covering material such as species counterpoint, four-part harmony, and part-writing.

Requisite Classes:
“Courses required to be taken concurrently (MTC 151 & 161; MTC 152 & 162; MTC 251 & 261; and MTC 252 and 262) must BOTH be passed with a minimum grade of “C” before moving on to the next two courses. Thus, students who meet the minimum requirements in only one of the two courses may NOT move on to the next level until the deficiency is rectified.” Also, be aware that you only have two attempts to pass any required music class.

Required Materials:
• Concise Introduction to Tonal Harmony by Burstein and Straus
• Pencils and staff paper https://www.blanksheetmusic.net/

Grading Rubric:
60% Exams (20% each)
40% Weekly Homework

Letter Grades:
A 90-100% B 80-89% C 70-79% D 60-69% F below 60%

Weekly Homework:
Assignments are due during the class period. No late work will be accepted. Weekly homework can be found on D2L.

Attendance:
Students are allowed 3 unexcused absences; each additional absence lowers the semester grade by 3%. Excused absences include official University or School of Music activities, medical emergencies, religious observances, and documented illnesses. You must e-mail me to have your absence excused, before class if at all possible.

Academic Integrity (A-9.1):
You are expected to complete all homework, quizzes, and exams independently. Do not collaborate with other students on assignments. Any student caught cheating, plagiarizing, copying another student’s work, or willingly allowing another student to copy his/her own work will automatically receive a zero for the assignment or exam. Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism. Definition of Academic Dishonesty Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one's own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one’s paper without giving the author due credit. Please read the complete policy at http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/academic_integrity.asp

Withheld Grades Semester Grades Policy (A-54):
Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Students with Disabilities:
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations.
