Academic integrity is the responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as providing guidelines for avoiding plagiarism. Students are expected to understand and follow these guidelines. For additional information, please see the Division of Multidisciplinary Programs website at http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/academic-appeals-by-students.pdf.

The Reflection Papers will be graded on the basis of the following factors:

- Your understanding of the course material
- Your ability to analyze and apply the course material
- Your ability to write clearly and coherently
- Your ability to demonstrate critical thinking skills
- Your ability to support your arguments with evidence and examples

The Reflection Papers will be graded on the basis of the following factors:

- Your understanding of the course material
- Your ability to analyze and apply the course material
- Your ability to write clearly and coherently
- Your ability to demonstrate critical thinking skills
- Your ability to support your arguments with evidence and examples

No credit will be assigned if the assignment is not submitted by the specified due date. Late assignments will not be accepted for credit. Students are responsible for ensuring that their assignments are submitted on time.

Dropbox Assignments and other written assignments will be graded on a scale of 0-50. Each one is worth 10% of your final grade.

Academic organizers will be held accountable for grading instructions that are clear, fair, and consistent with the course goals. They will be evaluated on the basis of their ability to provide clear and accurate instructions and to consistently apply the grading criteria.

The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic or other penalties.