Course Description: Intended primarily for non-theatre majors.

EEO’s: Exemplary Educational Objectives for the humanities and visual and performing arts:
1. To demonstrate awareness of the scope and variety of works in the arts and humanities.
2. To understand those works as expressions of individual and human values within an historical and social context.
3. To respond critically to works in the arts and humanities.
4. To engage in the creative process or interpretive performance and comprehend the physical and intellectual demands required of the author or visual or performing artist.
5. To articulate an informed personal reaction to works in the arts and humanities.
6. To develop an appreciation for the aesthetic principles that guide or govern the humanities and arts.
7. To demonstrate knowledge of the influence of literature, philosophy, and/or the arts on intercultural experiences.

SLOs: The student will:
1. Examine a basic understanding of the definitions, processes, personnel, styles, and periods of various kinds of theatre productions and to develop an appreciation for the aesthetic principles that guide or govern the humanities and arts.
2. Develop an appreciation of theatre as an art form and enable students to critically evaluate both scripts and theatrical performances as well as to articulate an informed personal reaction to works in the arts and humanities.
3. Enable students to perceive and analyze how theater of other times and places relates to (or differs from) mainstream, contemporary American theater, as well as demonstrate awareness of the scope and variety of works in the arts and humanities.
4. Associate works in the arts and humanities as expressions of individual and human values within an historical and social context and demonstrate knowledge of the influence of literature philosophy and the arts on intercultural experiences.
Required Texts

2. "Raisin in the Sun", "Importance of Being Earnest", "Oedipus Rex" (online)

Cheating and Plagiarism: Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one’s own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one’s paper without giving the author due credit.

Penalties may include reprimand or no credit for the assignment or exam, or re-submission of the paper, or make-up exam, or failure of the course. After a determination of dishonesty, the faculty member shall notify the Office of the Dean of the student’s major by submitting a Report of Academic Dishonesty form, along with supporting documentation as noted on the form. This report shall be made part of the student’s record and shall remain on file with the Dean’s office for at least four years.

Types of academic dishonesty:

1. Altering score/grade
2. Copying
3. Falsifying lab results or references
4. Plagiarism
5. Using unauthorized notes or crib sheet

Play Critiques: You will be required to attend two productions this semester. You will write a critique over both productions. These critiques should contain your impressions of the performance in regards to acting, directing, scripts, and design elements. Due dates are listed in the submission link.

Play Critiques

Critiques must be typed double-spaced in 12 font and 1 inch margins. Include in your paper an introductory paragraph, 3 to 4 body paragraphs using the guidelines.
below, and a concluding paragraph. Do not simply summarize the script; use the paper to critique the performance. The outline below will provide a structure for your paper. You can move from general information to specific opinion (as the questions imply), or you may reorganize to suit your purpose.

1. Introductory paragraph: Briefly summarize the plot in a few well-planned sentences. You can also introduce characters and ideas here as well.
2. Body: Determine the central image/concept of the production and explain how the director used dramatic elements which should include: acting, lighting, sound, costume, and set. Describe how these elements were used either successfully or unsuccessfully to explicate the image or concept. What seemed to be the central issue? How did the director work to clarify that issue during specific moments of the play?
3. Body: Describe specific aspects, actors, or moments of the production, which you particularly liked and the moments you really didn't like explain why.
4. Concluding paragraph: Define how the production impacted you (if it did) and discuss what you suspect the intended impact of the play was supposed to be (or should have been). i.e. why do you think this play was done at SFA? Do you think the intent of the production came across? What is the target audience for this performance?

Please use spell and grammar check. These will be graded as well as content.

Exams: Online under Assessments. They will all be timed and you will only have one opportunity available to take the tests. There will be three tests and three quizzes. The tests cover the material from the learning modules and the quizzes are on the plays you read.

Chats: There will be three chats during the semester. You are only required to attend one for the 15 points. You are welcome to attend more for the information.

Play Reading Journal: While reading A Raisin in the Sun, students will complete three assigned Discussion entries. The topics of these entries relate to cultural, social and community issues in the play.

Research Projects: You and/or a group of classmates will present an online report focusing on any subject in theatre pertaining to this class. Your project will demonstrate an understanding of the material and its relationship to the society of its time. Each person will be required to turn in a Work Cited page of at least three sources and one must be a book. You may work individually or in a group. It must be presented in a creative manner other than a report format. You must include visual aids. Each person will turn in his or her own two page summary of your research and subject along with a work cited page as the third page submitted. The paper and presentation will be submitted separately. The visual part of the presentation can be done in a power point fashion, prezi or a video or any other creative way you can think of to present online. It must be submitted in the assignment course tool. It must be a minimum of 10 to 15 slides with visuals on each slide.

Withheld Grades Semester Grades Policy (A-54)
Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Students with Disabilities:
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

Final Comments: This class should be enjoyable as well as informative. Please feel free to contact me with questions or concerns. Any plagiarism or cheating on any assignments will result in a failing grade for the course.
