Course Description:
A 1 to 6-hour course dedicated to research and writing connected to the completion of the M. A. thesis.

Student Learning Outcomes:
The SFA History Department has identified the following Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) for all SFA students earning an M.A. degree in History:
   1. The student will be able to explain the key issues and developments in at least two historical periods (one per course).
   2. The student will be able to identify the main historical works and interpretive debates associated with an event or period.
   3. The student will be able to locate, identify, and critically analyze primary sources.
   4. The student will be able to research and analyze effectively an issue or topic in writing.
   5. The student will be able to present written work in an appropriate academic style, including the proper citation of sources using Chicago Manual of Style (15th or most recent edition).
This course will incorporate to varying degrees each of these PLOS, with a particular emphasis on PLOs 3, 4, and 5.

Texts and Materials:
These will be assigned as needed for the student’s specific research. The student should have access to a reliable computer and sufficient backup storage to ensure no loss of work.

Course Requirements:
The student is expected to show advancement in both research and writing. This may occur linearly or simultaneously depending upon the thesis. Revisions should be made promptly and all edits and corrections done as directed. All formatting should follow graduate school requirements and all referencing should follow the newest edition of the Chicago Manual of Style.

Course Calendar:
The student and instructor will develop a series of submission and revision deadlines based upon the student’s current progress as well as the graduate school’s deadlines.

Grading Policy:
The grade will be WH until the successful defense and submission of a final thesis that meets all departmental and graduate school expectations.

Attendance Policy:
Regular and punctual attendance is expected (see Class-Attendance, 6.7-January 30, 2018 for more information).
SFA’s COVID-19 Mask Policy (for face-to-face classes only):
Masks (cloth face coverings) must be worn over the nose and mouth at all times in this class and appropriate physical distancing must be observed. Students not wearing a mask and/or not observing appropriate physical distancing will be asked to leave the class. All incidents of not wearing a mask and/or not observing appropriate physical distancing will be reported to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who are reported for multiple infractions of not wearing a mask and/or not observing appropriate physical distancing may be subject to disciplinary actions.

Explanation of credit hours awarded for course:
Students completing a thesis must register each semester university resources are utilized until the thesis is completed and successfully defended. During the research phase, the student works independently with a list of sources developed in consultation with the thesis director (who is listed as the course instructor of record). The student meets regularly with the director, and as needed with other members of the thesis committee, to discuss the progress of the project during the research phase. The student also works independently during the writing phase of the project, according to the plan of the approved thesis proposal, under the direction of the thesis director. Once again, as during the research phase, the student meets regularly with the director, and as needed with other members of the thesis committee, and submits drafts of the thesis as per the schedule outlined in the thesis proposal until the thesis is successfully defended and approved by the committee, a process that must occur according to university deadlines. Students are expected to produce 100-140 pages of formal writing. The course is for variable credit. Generally, the student registers for 6 hours of credit during the first semester of the thesis work and for 1 hour of credit during subsequent semesters until the thesis is successfully defended.
