Course Description:
Instruction in the fundamentals of instrumental conducting.

Course Outcomes:
Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

- Demonstrate fundamental techniques of conducting including:
  - the individual student’s ability to confidently conduct an ensemble.
  - baton technique, non-verbal communication skills, interpretive abilities, and intellectual skills needed to conduct an instrumental/choral ensemble.
  - proper beat patterns.
  - preparation and initial beat gestures.
  - the ability to cue effectively
  - conduct fermatas on any beat
- Properly identify the sounding pitch of all commonly used wind, percussion, and string instruments.
- Properly define common musical terms and foreign designations for instruments.

Course Requirements:
1. Conducting Assignments: Throughout the semester, students will be expected to conduct assigned exercises or excerpts in class. Students will be expected to complete a conducting Self-Evaluation Form as well as receive a grade from the professor. Self-evaluation Forms are due no later than the Monday after you have conducted. Late papers will not be accepted and will count as a 0 toward that portion of your final grade.
2. Written Assignments: Assignments pertinent to the lecture material will be assigned throughout the semester. Most assignments will involve developing a thorough understanding of transpositions and clefs. Late assignments will not be accepted.
3. Written Quizzes: Quizzes will typically cover topics assigned over the previous written assignment. Make-ups will not be given for students with an unexcused absence.

Materials: (Required)
- Conducting packet
- One conducting baton (12-15” in length)

Class Times and Locations:
- Monday, Wednesday, and Fridays, 10:00-10:50
- All classes will be held in room 170

Withheld Grades
There will be no withheld grades given for this course except at the discretion of the instructor of record only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Students with Disabilities
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations.

Masks and Social Distancing
Masks (cloth face coverings) must be worn over the nose and mouth at all times in this class and appropriate physical distancing must be observed. Students not wearing a mask and/or not observing appropriate physical distancing will be asked to leave the class. All incidents of not wearing a mask and/or not observing appropriate physical distancing will be reported to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who are reported for multiple infractions of not wearing a mask and/or not observing appropriate physical distancing may be subject to disciplinary actions.
