Sectionals will be scheduled as needed and occur during the full ensemble rehearsal time.

Rehearsal Expectations
“You come to rehearsal to learn everyone else’s part; to do so, you must arrive with mastery of your own.”
“Better than yesterday, not as good as tomorrow.” – Gail Williams

Before each rehearsal be sure you have marked the following in your part:
- Numbers for each individual measure
- Translation of unknown terms and instructions
- Details addressed in previous rehearsals
- Errata (if provided)
- Major structural points, harmonic information, and other pertinent instructions (if provided)

Cell phones are not permitted by non-principal players. Principal players may have a phone under their chair to use as a metronome or tuner, but not on their stand. Inappropriate phone usage will result in a reduction of the final grade for the course by one letter grade per incident.

Non-cell phone metronomes and tuners are permitted (and encouraged) to be used during rehearsal.

Concert Attire
MEN’S ATTIRE: Solid black tuxedo, black bow tie, black vest or cummerbund, black socks, and black shoes. Please advise that suspenders (rather than belts) are recommended to achieve the proper look for performance.

If you have any questions regarding proper concert attire, please consult the conductor in person after rehearsal. Thank you in advance for your consideration professionalism on this front.

Academic Integrity (A-9.1)
Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.

Definition of Academic Dishonesty
Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one’s own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one’s paper without giving the author due credit.

Please read the complete policy at http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/academic_integrity.asp

Acceptable Student Behavior
Classroom behavior should not interfere with the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to learn from the instructional program (see the Student Conduct Code, policy D-34.1). Unacceptable or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic or other penalties. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including electronic, classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. Students who do not attend class regularly or who perform poorly on class projects/exams may be referred to the Early Alert Program. This program provides students with recommendations for resources or other assistance that is available to help SFA students succeed.
