Course Information:
1) If you have ANY questions about this course, please read the syllabus first, it can most likely be found in the document. If you have thoroughly read through the syllabus and still cannot find the answer email me on D2L.
   -Give me 24 hours to respond. This means that you will need to keep on top of things so you don’t have any last minute, and time sensitive, questions.
   -I do NOT check my email on the weekend, so do not expect a response until Monday.

2) I will accept late work, but only until the day after it is due. All late assignments will automatically have 30% deducted. Assignments are given in advance so there is no excuse for waiting until the last minute to get it done.

3) You can NOT take an exam after it has been given in class for any reason. You may take an exam early, and if you know you are going to be gone I would highly recommend this.

Course Description:
This course will introduce students to the constitutional structure of American and Texas government as well as federalism and the role of local governments. Students will also examine the roles of public opinion, organized interests, and political parties in American and Texas politics. This three-credit hour face-to-face course requires approximate 150 minutes of classroom time/direct instruction as well as at least six hours of out-of-class reading and studying each week in preparation for exams and completion of writing assignments.

Purpose:
This course is designed to introduce students to the qualitative and quantitative analysis of U.S. and Texas politics. The course will help students develop the capacity to reflect and act upon political and social issues in order to increase meaningful participation in democratic society. The course assignments also help students develop the reading and listening skills needed to succeed beyond college.

Required Readings for this course will be provided for you on D2L in the “Course Readings” module. You can find all of these listed in the Course Outline at the end of this document.
Assignments

There will be five exams in the class. The first four exams are required, if you are satisfied with your course grade after the first four exams then you may choose not to take the final exam. The final exam will be cumulative. These exams will cover both material from the readings and class lectures so it is important to take good notes. If you miss an exam for any reason then you must take the final exam. If you must miss two exams please see me as soon as possible so that arrangements can be made for you to take an early exam. Late exams are not permitted. If you take all five exams then your lowest exam grade will be dropped.

Exam 1 - 12.5%
Exam 2 - 12.5%
Exam 3 - 12.5%
Exam 4 - 12.5%
Final (Optional) - 15%
Exam Total: 50% (Worth 12.5 points each)

There will also be five quizzes over lectures and readings these are noted in the course outline. These are not to torture you, but to make sure you are actually reading and understanding the material.

Quizzes - 10% (Worth 2 points each)

You will turn in four, 250 word current event essays, on the assigned Tuesdays. Instructions and due dates for this assignment can be found on the last page of the syllabus.

Current Events – 20% (Worth 5 points each)

There will be 2 online discussions in this class. The first will be over the American Dream and the second will be over types of media. These will be conducted over D2L. These can be found in the course outline and instructions will be attached to each discussion assignment.

Discussions - 10% (Worth 5 points each)

There will be a writing assignment over the civil liberties for core curriculum purposes. There will be a handout on this assignment once we get to it.

Writing Assignment - 10% (Worth 10 points)

Extra Credit:
Before every exam a review will be posted in D2L. These reviews will be worth 1 point on top of your final grade, and they are completely optional. To receive credit for your review you MUST submit it to the appropriate D2L Drop Box before 11:59pm on the day your exam closes. These dropboxes will not accept late work.

Exam Reviews - 5 EC points (added to final grade)

There will also be Bonus quizzes attached to your exams!

Exam Bonus Quizzes - 1 EC point (added into your exam grade)

Because there are multiple opportunities for extra credit no other extra credit will be offered.
Notes:
I will be teaching from Power Points, which will be posted in D2L, however I really encourage you to take notes, whether that be in the power point, by hand, or on the computer. I will also try to have handouts for most lectures.

Program Learning Outcomes:
This is a general education core curriculum course and no specific program learning outcomes for this major are addressed in this course.

Student Learning Outcomes:
By the end of the course, students will be able
1. To describe the basic themes and concepts related to the study of American and Texas political institutions
2. To examine the relationship between political behavior and political institutions, especially the interdependence of behavior and institutions
3. To think critical thinking about American and Texas politics, especially the institutional framework of the system
4. To discuss the salient features of political institutions as understood by political scientists
5. To understand citizenship in the American political system more completely

Academic Integrity (A-9.1)
Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.

Definition of Academic Dishonesty
Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one’s own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one's paper without giving the author due credit.

Please read the complete policy at http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/academic_integrity.asp

Withheld Grades Semester Grades Policy (A-54)
Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.
Students with Disabilities
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

General Education Core Curriculum Objectives/Outcomes:
This course has been selected to be part of Stephen F. Austin State University’s core curriculum. The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board has identified six objectives for all core courses: Critical Thinking Skills, Communication Skills, Empirical and Quantitative Skills, Teamwork, Personal Responsibility, and Social Responsibility. SFA is committed to the improvement of its general education core curriculum by regular assessment of student performance on these six objectives.

CURRENT EVENT DUE DATES

Regular: 2/4, 3/3, 3/31, 4/21
Make-up: 5/6

Acceptable Sources

- PBS
- BBC
- CSPAN
- Reuters
- Associated Press
- NPR
- Al Jazeera

Instructions:

1) Choose and read an article about government or politics from one of the above sources. This part will be easier if you choose an article that is about something you are actually interested in. Please remember that this is an academic assignment, therefore academic language should be used at all times. Attention should also be paid to grammar and spelling.

2) Your Current Event is a four part assignment. Neglect of one part will result in loss of points. A rubric will be used to grade this assignment. A copy of is can be found in the Welcome Module. You can also look at the rubric on D2L by clicking on the dropbox.

   Part 1) Summarize your article. This should be about 100-150 words.

   Part 2) What are your opinions of the event? Is there anything you agree or disagree with? Explain how the event may impact our government in a negative or positive way. This should be between 100-150 words.

   Part 3) Explain why this is relevant to our class? Be specific; tie the event back to a topic from the syllabus, or something that we have talked about. This should be between 50-75 words.

   Part 4) You must cite your work you may use either citation format. Make sure that you are formatting your citation correctly AND using one of the acceptable sources. (Found below)

3) The Current Event should be at least 250 words. I will be counting, and points will be taken off if short.

4) Current Events are due on assigned Tuesday nights by 11:59pm. They must be submitted to the appropriate Drop Box on D2L. Remember that late current events can only be turned in the day after it is due. Late Current Events will automatically have 30 percent (1.5 points) deducted from them.
