Course Description

From General Bulletin, 2019-2020: This course introduces students to the basic concepts of international and comparative politics, including the state, markets, institutions, power, democracy and collective action. The course incorporates current global issues in the context of these basic concepts. Additionally, the course will examine these concepts with regard to select country profiles based on current global issues.

Text and Material

Additional readings will be posted to D2L.

Attendance

Students should make every effort to attend every class meeting. In the case of an excused absence with proper documentation, extended deadlines or alternate activities will be provided for any graded activities. An acceptable excuse is a doctor’s excuse, a University excuse, or a catastrophic emergency resulting in unavoidable absence. Arrangements to complete alternate activities, such as another version of an exam, must be made within one week of returning to class; otherwise, a zero will be recorded.
COURSE REQUIREMENTS

This three-credit hour face-to-face course requires approximately 150 minutes of classroom time/direct instruction as well as at least six hours of out-of-class reading and studying each week in preparation for exams and completion of writing assignments.

Your grade is a weighted average of the following components:

- Exams - 70%
- Participation - 10%
- Simulation - 20%

Grading: Numeric grades will be converted to letter grades using the standard scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Letter Grade</th>
<th>Numeric Grade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>90-100</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

EXAMS

Students will take three exams that consist of short answer questions based on class lecture, assigned readings, and class discussion.

PARTICIPATION

Throughout class there will be simulations and small group exercises that will be grade. Simulation will be graded based on participation. Small group work will be posted to D2L which a rubric.

SIMULATION

At the end of the semester, students will participate in a conflict simulation. Detailed instructions and assignments will be posted to D2L.

Tentative Simulation Schedule:

- Day 1-2: Presentation of Group Goals/Tactics/Territory
- Day 3-5: Game Play
- Day 6: Final Policy Papers/Debrief
COURSE POLICIES

1. Make-Up Exams: I have a “no questions asked” early exam policy, which means that any exam can be taken early for any reason. However, only exams missed due to excused absences will be eligible for students to take at a later date. Students who are aware that they will miss an exam or have missed one due to an emergency are responsible for contacting the instructor to arrange a new exam date at least a week before the exam for planned occasions and in a timely manner for emergencies.

2. Classroom Behavior: Students should be respectful of others and refrain from behaving in a disruptive manner, including talking/texting on cell phone, speaking out of turn, reading non-class material, entering (leaving) class late (early), watching netflix, etc. When class permits itself to discussion, students should also be courteous to others opinions and backgrounds. Personal attacks or discrimination based on race, ethnicity, gender, religion, and/or lifestyle will not be tolerated. If a student fails to follow any of these behavior guidelines they will be asked to leave, and any persistent behavior can result in the removal of that student from the course.

3. Assignment Review: If you are concerned about your grade on an assignment, I am happy to review it. However, I require that you 1) wait 24 hours after the assignment has been returned to you to request review, and 2) outline your concerns about the assignment grade via email. Please be aware that I will regrade the entire assignment (not just one portion of it) if you request review, and I reserve the right to raise or lower your grade as a result.

4. Email Policy: Please include your first and last name and course information in the subject line of your email. Please treat all email correspondences with your instructor as you would treat any other professional exchange. Accordingly, I expect emails to be respectful and polite, to use correct grammar and complete sentences.

5. Technology: I can assure you, you will not find the answers to class discussion in your text, or on facebook, twitter, or instagram. Cell phones and laptops are generally a distraction and detrimental to the classroom experience. They have the tendency to take students away from the lecture and impede the active engagement with students, instructors and/or peers. While I do permit the use of laptops and tablets for note-taking, I encourage you to leave your laptops at home, to take notes with a pen or a pencil and to engage in classroom discussions.

6. Syllabus Change Policy: Except for changes that substantially affect implementation of the evaluation (grading) statement, this syllabus is a guide for the course and is subject to change with advance notice.
UNIVERSITY POLICIES

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY (A-9.1):

Academic Integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.

Definition of Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one’s own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another, (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one’s paper without giving the author due credit. Please read the complete policy at http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/academic_integrity.asp.

WITHHELD GRADES/SEMESTER GRADES POLICY (A-54):

Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in the future the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:

To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, in Room 325, 468-3004/468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations.
