Class Participation and Preparedness: In order to succeed in any Spanish course, the following should be taking into account: daily attendance, arriving on time, coming to class prepared, and ready to interact with your professor and classmates only in Spanish.

“Participation consists of the assessment of the quality of the student’s contributions to the class and language learning.” If you appear not to be prepared to interact in the target language, your grade will reflect this (preview and review materials and completed exercises). If you, on the other hand, are prepared and do not participate, your grade will be affected similarly. As a professor, I expect that students will engage in this course in all areas that help them improve their language learning.

Your participation grade will be evaluated through the preparation of materials and in-class discussions. As a university student, you should strive in every class meeting to: have an understanding of the material being discussed, cooperate in all assigned activities with classmates, do your utmost to provide qualitative feedback during peer review sessions, actively participate in class discussions, display a civil, courteous and polite attitude toward your professor and classmates. Reasons that will contribute to lower your participation in class are: arriving late, leaving early, coming to class unprepared, disruptive behavior, unwillingness to participate in classroom activities or communicate in Spanish.

Assignments Mindtap: You will be able to earn as much as 40% of your final grade by completing assigned exercises, practice, readings, reviews, discussions, quizzes, individual or small group oral activities, and tutorials posted in Mindtap. These exercises are geared towards promoting a deeper understanding of the target language, grammatical structures, vocabulary, listening, and cultural aspects.

For Mindtap you will have to receive an overall score of 85 % or better on the assigned chapters to be able to get 40% of your final grade. If the 85 % is not met the percentage will be adjusted accordingly. Assignments have to be completed online by the dates specified in Mindtap. Weekly assignments in Mindtap will open Sunday at 11:59 p.m. and are due by Friday at 11:59 p.m. It is highly recommended that you pace yourself. No late work or make-up sections will be accepted. All activities are due by the end of day (11:59 p.m.) unless otherwise specified by your Professor.

Quizzes: Through the course you will have several quizzes assigned to test your knowledge and mastery of the material in Mindtap.

Oral individual, pairs or small group activities: Series of creative and communicative practices with a focus on individual speaking (presentational), extemporaneous speaking, and structured simulated conversation that incorporates listening and speaking and prepares you for creative self-expression. In this course you will have to complete several oral activities (individual, pair, groups, and professor).

Exams: There will be a total of 2 exams in this semester: Midterm and Final —worth a combined 45% of your final grade. The dates of these exams are on the tentative schedule section of the syllabus. There are no make-up exams given.
Late Work: No late work will be accepted without approval from your professor and/or proper documentation is submitted from a university sponsor, physician, etc. For documented excused absences, you may make up quizzes and exams for classes missed. You are encouraged to discuss any missed assignments with your instructor. Please make an appointment to meet your instructor.

Lab: The language lab is available to you to complete assignments for your class and to use as a resource center. There are tutors available to you in the lab that can help guide you with online or instructor generated exercises and activities. Your tutor cannot give you responses directly but may point you in the right direction: For assistance with 131 level web activities. For help reviewing for tests and general review. For input on assignments already graded by instructor. You may NOT however seek assistance on graded assignments that you will turn in again for points in the class. A schedule of available tutoring times will be provided.

Final Cumulative Assessment Exercise: You have the unique opportunity to earn up to 3% of your Final Course Grade. As noted in your calendar, you will have access to a cumulative assessment in D2L during dead week. Assessment has to be completed by the date and time assigned. This assessment is designed with the intention of getting you ready for the final exam. Please view this test as preparation for your final exam. You are only increasing your chances of achieving success and going into your final examination well prepared.

*Students must pass Spanish 131 with a 70 or higher to enroll in Spanish 132.

Academic Integrity (A-9.1) Original Implementation: Unpublished
Last Revision: January 31, 2017

Abiding by university policy on academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members must promote the components of academic integrity in their instruction, and course syllabi are required to provide information about penalties for cheating and plagiarism, as well as the appeal process.

Definition of Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- using or attempting to use unauthorized materials on any class assignment or exam;
- falsifying or inventing of any information, including citations, on an assignment;
- helping or attempting to help other student(s) in an act of cheating or plagiarism.

Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were one’s own. Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:
• submitting an assignment as one's own work when it is at least partly the work of another person;
• submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from the Internet or another source;
• incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one's paper or presentation without giving the author credit.

Penalties for Academic Dishonesty

Penalties may include, but are not limited to, reprimand, no credit for the assignment or exam, resubmission of the work, make-up exam, failure of the course, or expulsion from the university.

Procedure for Addressing Student Academic Dishonesty

A faculty member who has evidence and/or suspects that academic dishonesty has occurred will gather all pertinent information and initiate the following procedure:

1. The faculty member will discuss all evidence of cheating or plagiarism directly with the student(s) involved.
2. After consideration of the explanation provided by the student(s), the faculty member will determine whether academic dishonesty has occurred. The faculty member may consult with the academic unit head and/or dean in making a decision.
3. After a determination of academic dishonesty, the faculty member will inform the academic unit head and submit a Report of Academic Dishonesty with supporting documentation to the office of the dean of the student's major. This report will become part of the student's record and will remain on file with the dean's office for at least four years even if the student withdraws prior to receiving a grade.
4. For a serious first offense or subsequent offenses, the dean of the student's major will determine a course of action, which may include dismissal from the university. The dean may refer the case to the college council for review and recommendations before making this determination.

A student's record of academic dishonesty will not be available to faculty members. The purpose of the record is for the dean to track a pattern of academic dishonesty during a student's academic career at Stephen F. Austin State University.

Student Appeals
A student who wishes to appeal decisions related to academic dishonesty should follow procedures outlined in Academic Appeals by Students (6.3).

Cross Reference: Student Handbook; Academic Appeals by Students (6.3); and Course Add/Drop (6.10)

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

WITHHELD GRADES Course Grades Policy (5.5): At the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic unit head, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F, except as allowed through policy [i.e., Active Military Service (6.14)]. If students register for the same course in future semesters, the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.
