Short Films (Documentary) is an intensive online Zoom based class (four days a week for four weeks) introducing four styles of documentary filmmaking. Normally we would work in groups, but since we’re unable to meet in person, each student will be responsible for their own documentary. Therefore, we will have lots of short films to shoot and screen this summer. Each student will study, shoot and produce the selected style of documentary each week. This class is long (three hours and fifty minutes) but will be broken up into sections each day to make for a relaxed learning and shooting schedule.

The objectives of this class are:

- Define documentary film.
- Give context to the history of documentary film.
- Break down of pre-production, production, and post-production specific to this format.
- Producing, writing, shooting and editing your own documentary.

Meeting deadlines for your documentaries.

Four Documentaries will be assigned in this course:

Week One: Observational...filming only what unfolds around you. You’re the proverbial “fly on the wall”.
Week Two: Participatory/Performative...the filmmaker will be on screen to tell their side of the story as they cut from one interview/image to the other. The filmmaker advocates for the issue.

Week Three: Expository...re-tell an event through clips, interviews, and narration.

Week Four: Impressionistic/Poetic...freeform non-traditional documentary that tells a story or emotion through narration, music, and images both old and new.

Attendance: Absences will be recorded. Three un-excused absences will lower a student’s grade one letter. Four un-excused absences will result in a failing grade.

Grades are based on:
- Attendance (your living face must be on camera for me to see).
- Participation in class discussions.
- Attitude (you may be at home, but you’re still at work. Sit up, pay attention, no eating, no lying reclined on your comfy bed...and dress for class).
- Meeting Deadlines for project due dates.
- Uploading your films to our YouTube channel and emailing the link to me at: maulegb@sfasu.edu
- Evaluation of Documentaries

There are no written tests for this course, but many challenges...get up, get dressed, find an idea, write it out, find your locations and talent, leave your house, go shoot your film, show me your rough footage, edit, and finally screen your award winning documentary to the class.

S.F.A. Class Attendance and Excused Absence Policies

Class Attendance: Regular and punctual attendance is expected for all classes, laboratories, and other activities for which a student is registered. Attendance policies shall be stated in the syllabus. For those classes where attendance is a factor in the course grade, an accurate record of attendance shall be maintained. Regardless of attendance, the student is responsible for course content and assignments.

Excused Absences: Students may be excused from attendance for reasons such as health, family emergencies, or student participation in approved university-sponsored events. However, students are responsible for notifying their instructors in advance, when possible, for excusable absences. Students are responsible for providing satisfactory documentation in a timely manner to the instructor for each absence. Whether absences are excused or unexcused, a student is still responsible for all course content and assignments. Students with acceptable excuses may be permitted to make up work for a maximum of three weeks’ worth of absences during a semester or one week of a summer term, depending on the nature of the missed work. Make up work must be completed as soon as possible after returning from an absence in accordance with the course syllabus. In the case of absences caused by participation in university-sponsored events, announcement via my SFA will constitute official notification. Faculty members sponsoring activities that require their students to be absent from other classes must submit to the provost and vice president for academic affairs an explanation of the absence, including the date, time and an alphabetical listing of all attending students. If approved by the provost and vice president for academic affairs, this information will be posted on my SFA.

S.F.A. Academic Integrity Policy

Definition of Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes, but is not limited to: 1. Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; 2. Falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assignment; and/or: 3. Helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to: 1. Submitting an assignment as if it were one’s own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; 2. Submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from the Internet or another source; 3. Incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one’s paper or presentation without giving the author due credit.

Procedure for Addressing Student Academic Dishonesty: A faculty member who has evidence and/or suspects that academic dishonesty has occurred shall gather all pertinent information, approach the student(s) involved, and initiate the following procedure: 1. The faculty member shall review all evidence of cheating or plagiarism and discuss it directly with the student(s) involved. The faculty member shall inform the student(s) of the procedure for addressing academic dishonesty, as well as the appeals process: 2. After hearing the student(s)’ explanation or defense, the faculty member will determine whether or not academic dishonesty has occurred and will inform the student(s) what action will be taken. Penalties may include reprimand, no credit for the assignment or exam, resubmission of the work, make-up exam, or failure of the course. The faculty member may consult with the academic unit chair/director and dean in making these decisions: 3. After a determination of academic dishonesty, the faculty member shall notify the office of the dean of the student’s major by submitting a Report of Academic Dishonesty, along with supporting documentation as noted on the form. This report shall be made part of the student’s record and shall remain on file with the dean’s office for at least four years: 4. Upon second or subsequent offenses, the dean of the student’s major will determine a course of action, which may include dismissal from the university. The dean may refer the case to the college council for review and recommendations before making this determination. A student’s record of academic dishonesty will not be available to faculty members. The purpose of the record is for the dean to track a pattern of academic dishonesty during a student’s academic career at Stephen F. Austin State University. Students who are found to have demonstrated academic dishonesty and have withdrawn prior to the award of a grade will continue to have the determination of the infraction within their student records.

Student Appeals: A student who wishes to appeal decisions related to academic integrity should follow procedures outlined in Academic Appeals of Students (A-2). To see the complete policy go to:
http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/academic_integrity.asp

S.F.A. Withheld Grades Semester Grades Policy
Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

S.F.A. Policy for Students with Disabilities
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 1 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to:  http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices Safety: Filmmaking is a profession where people have been injured and killed; therefore, safety is an issue that must be addressed. Film students must always be aware of the dangers of the equipment being used and the inherent dangers of some locations. “Anything for the shot” is not acceptable behavior for a film student.
