Attendance
You are expected to attend and be well prepared at every scheduled lesson. Be prepared with all of the assigned work even though it may not all be heard at each lesson. You are allowed one unprepared lesson each semester due to term papers, exams, family emergencies or illness. If you are so ill that you should not attend a lesson, please inform me as early as possible, so that I can make good use of your lesson time and so that your lesson can be conveniently rescheduled. You are also expected to attend studio class every Friday at 1:00 PM. This is a forum in which students will have the opportunity to perform for each other, and we will also have discussions and presentations on relevant string topics.

Grading procedures
Grading is based on overall progress and preparedness, not on talent. Your final grade at the end of the semester will be based on your ability to successfully meet these criteria consistently in lessons:
1. Thorough preparation of all assignments: scales, etudes, and repertoire, as appropriate
2. Your involvement in attending, performing and/or participating in discussion in Studio Class, Convocation and/or String Recitals by Faculty and Students
3. Performance in final string jury

Grading of the applied lesson is highly subjective by nature. Primary factors upon which you will be graded are: lesson preparation; attitude; musical improvement; studio participation and material completed. A majority of the weight of the semester grade will be based on lesson preparation and musical growth. Your progress will be judged on the basis of growth, improvement in basic musical skills, completion of assigned materials and work on repertoire, scales and etudes as assigned. You are also expected to actively participate in studio class. This is a “lab” for the applied lesson. You will perform several times in studio class during the semester.

Minimum daily individual practice time should equal the number of credit hours you receive for the applied lesson.

Recital Attendance
Attendance at recitals by members of the strings studios and designated faculty recitals is required. You must make me aware of any conflicts before the event. Required recitals will be posted at my office, by the second week of classes.

I had to work. (SO DO I!)
I left my music at home.

Academic Integrity (A-9.1)

Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.
Definition of Academic Dishonesty
Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one’s own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one’s paper without giving the author due credit. Please read the complete policy at http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/academic_integrity.asp

Withheld Grades Semester Grades Policy (A-54)
Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Students with Disabilities
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations.
