Phone: (office) x 4206
Office Hours: By Appointment

Course Name: Applied Voice
Meeting Time: M 1:00-1:50 and By Appointment
Location: Music 280, 160

Course Description
Private voice instruction (1 hour weekly [1/2 hour for 5109]) and seminar participation.

Applied Instruction-MUAP 5219: Two semester Hours Credit, one hour instruction per week plus one hour studio class or collective seminar weekly. Students are expected to practice assigned materials individually that may include exercises, daily routines, assigned solos, translating, IPA transcription, and/or memorization two hours daily, five days per week for a total of ten hours of outside preparation each week for fifteen weeks. Students are also expected to attend and perform in required collective seminars, recitals, and/or upper-level barriers, which is typically an additional five to ten hour time requirement during the fifteen-week semester.

Applied Instruction-MUAP 5329: Three semester Hours Credit, one hour instruction per week plus one hour studio class or collective seminar weekly. Students are expected to practice assigned materials individually that may include exercises, daily routines, assigned solos, translating, IPA transcription, and/or memorization three hours daily, five days per week, for a total of fifteen hours of outside preparation each week for fifteen weeks. Students are also expected to attend and perform in required collective seminars, recitals, and/or upper-level barriers, which is typically an additional five to ten hour time requirement during the fifteen-week semester.

Course Objectives
1. Develop a healthy and reliable vocal technique.
2. Develop a working knowledge of the standard vocal repertoire (primarily classical and from the Western tradition) and to publicly perform representative works from this repertoire with ever-increasing musicianship and expression.

Program Learning Outcomes (Graduate)
1. Students will analyze and synthesize musical information from a variety of sources and present their findings in written form.
2. Students will demonstrate comprehensive abilities in preparation and performance at a level commensurate with a Master of Music.
3. Students will demonstrate knowledge of applicable repertoire and pedagogical fundamentals in their area of study.
4. Students will demonstrate a working knowledge of music history and literature from the Western art tradition at a level commensurate with a Master of Music.
5. Students will successfully complete an academic capstone project.
6. Students will demonstrate competence in professional skills related to work in the arts.

Student Learning Outcomes (PLOs 2, 3, 4, 6)
1. Through private lessons, individual practice sessions, and performances in studio and collective seminars, students will acquire and demonstrate ever-increasing knowledge and skill in each successive semester in the areas of:
   a) intonation
   b) rhythmic precision
   c) a good singing diction
   d) a good singing posture
   e) proper breath management for singing
   f) vocal registration
   g) a well-formanted tone quality

2. Students will acquire and demonstrate a growing knowledge of standard vocal repertoire by:
   a) learning assigned repertoire, culminating in a memorized, solo recital consisting of at least 45 minutes of music
   b) performing selections of same during lessons, studio and collective seminars
   c) attending vocal recitals
   d) self-directed listening

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Grading
Your grade will consist of the following elements:
- Lesson preparation. To include:
  - technique and repertoire
  - text translation and IPA transcription weekly practice logs (if required by instructor)

• Seminar attendance, participation, and performances
  • We will set goals for your performances. Stick to the plan. Achieve the goal. Declare victory. In the process, get a good grade.

Grading Scale
A (90-100)  B (80-89)  C (70-79)  D (60-69)  F (59 & lower)

Lesson Grades
Lessons will be by appointment and held in Music 280 (unless otherwise stated by the instructor). It is the student’s responsibility to attend all scheduled lessons. If a lesson is to be missed – because of illness or other reasons – prior notification of the instructor (by e-mail, phone, facebook, text, or in person) is mandatory. Failure to do so will result in a failing grade for the missed lesson. The instructor will attempt to—but is not required to—make up excused absences; unexcused absences will not be made up. Lessons that fall on a school holiday are not required to be made up. Lessons canceled by the instructor will be made up.

The student is expected to practice any and all assigned music and exercises outside of the scheduled lesson time and to come to lessons prepared. The instructor will attempt to give specific directions for student practice between lessons. (This is where the majority of your vocal growth will come—by yourself in a practice room!) Learn your music by whatever means necessary. I will gladly help with diction problems, but I do not care to use valuable lesson time pounding notes!! Failure to learn music on your own will adversely affect your grade. Notes will be taken each lesson on the student’s musical preparation, vocal growth, and attitude. Students who learn their music quickly, show evidence of technical growth, and conduct themselves responsibly will receive higher scores than those who do not. Once the student is assigned a piece of music, he/she is expected to begin working on it. Do not wait for the instructor to direct you to begin working on a piece; assume that you should be learning it unless told otherwise. It is acceptable to ask for more music once all assigned pieces have been learned.

Practice Logs (if required)
It is impossible to progress without regular practice. If I sense that a student is not practicing or is practicing insufficiently, I will assign a weekly practice log (available online and from the instructor), to be filled out and turned in at the first lesson of each week.

Seminar Participation
All students are expected to attend all studio seminars, which meet Mondays from 1:00-1:50 in M160 (Music Recital Hall). Attendance policies are the same as those for lesson attendance. Participation includes (but is not limited to) singing in class when asked—from memory unless otherwise stated—taking part in class discussions, listening respectfully to other performers and encouraging one’s colleagues. This is an excellent time to train your ear and to begin thinking as a voice teacher, no matter how young or inexperienced you may think yourself to be. ExTRANeous talking will not be tolerated and students who repeatedly offend may be asked to leave class for the day and will not be given credit for having attended. Students will be given advance notice if expected to sing and performances will be graded. All students must sing on at least one collective seminar.
Repertoire Sheets
The student will occasionally be required to complete a repertoire sheet (provided by the instructor) for pieces assigned during the semester. These will be turned in at a time set by the instructor and will be graded based on thoroughness, accuracy, and imagination. The sheets are self-explanatory and require that the student translate the song as well as answer other questions pertinent to its performance. These are very important and very helpful!

Student Recitals
For those giving a recital this semester, Recital Preparation Checklists are available from Dr. LaGraff. All voice recitals are held in MRH; I do not yet know what the protocol will be for guests, but unless we hear differently, assume it’s back to normal (pre-COVID), in that there will be no limits on the number of guests. I will alert you if this changes.

Graduate students in my studio will be expected to write their own program notes for their recitals. Note also that this material may well be on your comprehensive exam.

Collaborative Pianists
Some students will be assigned student pianists by Dr. Petti. Take advantage of this opportunity and rehearse with them on a weekly basis. Advise them of your lesson time and ask them to attend the last half of lessons. Those who have not had a pianist assigned will need to contact Drs. Petti, Pitts, Nixon, or Lyapkova, and ask one of them to play for any upcoming performances. Send them an email that includes your name, your studio (LaGraff), what you’ll be singing, when/where you’re singing, and your cell # (very important). Also, make a copy of your music and put it in his/her mailbox (include all the info from the email). DO THIS AT LEAST A WEEK IN ADVANCE! You will then be able to schedule rehearsals with them, rather than throwing it together at the last minute. As a general rule, they will not perform with you if you have not rehearsed with them first.

Online Evaluation
All students are requested to fill out an online evaluation of the instructor and course, which can be accessed through mySFA.

School of Music Two Strikes Policy
Students who fail to earn at least the minimum passing grade (which, at the graduate level, is a C) in a music course in two successive attempts will not be allowed to continue as a music major, so KEEP YOUR GRADES UP!! Yes, college is a time for fun, but don’t forget that you’re here to earn a degree, and of equal importance, to learn how to be successful as a professional musician.

Comprehensive Examination
Midway through a graduate student’s final semester of classes, he/she will take the Comprehensive Examination. This is a two-part exam that covers your major area of study (voice), as well as material from music history and theory classes that you have taken during your graduate studies at SFA. More information will be given to you at the start of your final semester.
ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.

Definition of Academic Dishonesty
Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one’s own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporation the works or ideas of an author into one’s paper without giving the author due credit. Please read the complete policy at http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/academic_integrity.asp.

Withheld Grades
Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Students with Disabilities
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

SFASU values students' mental health and the role it plays in academic and overall student success. SFA provides a variety of resources to support student's mental health and wellness. Many of these resources are free, and all of them are confidential.
