Course Description
1135, 3135, 4035 section 002 – University Bands. 1 semester hour credit. 3 hours of rehearsal per week. May be repeated for credit.

Course Objectives, Program Learning Outcomes & Student Learning Outcomes
The Wind Symphony is a proud part of the University Bands at Stephen F. Austin State University. The goals and objectives of the ensemble are:

1. To perform both standard and new works of the wind band repertoire that is of high quality and genuine artistic merit.
2. To provide all members of the ensemble, especially those majoring in music education or music performance, a firm foundation in ensemble musicianship and ways to teach these concepts.
3. To encourage participation in every ensemble found within the department of University Bands by participating in the Wind Symphony.
4. To provide quality musical experiences to every member of the ensemble on a daily basis.

Program Learning Outcomes (as required by SFASU):
• Students will develop and demonstrate comprehensive capabilities in rehearsing and preparing a high-level performance in ensembles.

Student Learning Outcomes (as required by SFASU):
• The ensemble will be given the opportunity to play music from the core repertoire of band composers and transcriptions.
• The ensemble will be given the opportunity this semester to work with a guest conductor, composer and/or guest artist.
• The ensemble will be given the opportunity to play music from different time periods and of different styles including but not limited to: new music, marches, transcriptions, etc.
• The student will be given an opportunity to learn about ways to connect with ensembles effectively as a conductor.
• The ensemble will be given an opportunity to learn basic ensemble concepts and listening assignments to develop balance in a band setting.
• The ensemble will be given an opportunity to learn about other techniques related to daily fundamental work (For example: singing, mouthpiece playing, playing with a tone drone, etc.).

Course Organization and Required Materials
Rehearsals take place in the Orchestra Room (Music Bldg. Rm. 170) Monday and Wednesday and in the Band Hall (Music Bldg. Rm. 121) on Fridays from 12:00-12:50 PM. The rehearsal schedule for a given concert will be posted on the bulletin board outside the SFA band office in the area designated for the Wind Symphony and also on D2L. It is the student’s responsibility to be in the rehearsal for the pieces in which they are assigned. The music will be posted on D2L and it is the student’s responsibility to download and print their own part for each piece. It is also the student’s responsibility to have the music prepared that is being rehearsed that day.

Required Text
• Foundations for Superior Performance. Jeff King & Richard Williams (Published by Kjos Music, Inc.)

Materials required for rehearsal include: pencil, concert music, Foundations for Superior Performance (also known as the “Jeff King book” or “blue book”) text, and any other supplies necessary to ensure your instrument is in working and performance quality order (i.e., valve oil, working reeds, etc.) Please purchase the King text well before you arrive in Nacogdoches so that you can be prepared for rehearsal. We use this text everyday!
Grading and Attendance

Each student’s grade will be based on the preparation of his/her assigned parts, rehearsal and sectional attendance, concert dress and concert attendance. Each student must submit any absence request at least one week in advance, except for emergencies, by e-mailing the conductor (e-mail listed at top of syllabus). It is suggested that in the event of an absence, the student should arrange for a substitute performer (more commonly known as a “sub”) that is capable of contributing to the rehearsal in a positive manner – the director should approve this. The determination of an absence as excused or unexcused is left solely up to the director. Note the following consequences for rehearsal and concert absence:

Sectionals

Sectionals for Wind Symphony occur during both the Fall and Spring semesters and should be completed for each concert cycle by the date announced during the first rehearsal. The dates, times and locations for the sectionals must be determined and given to the director by the principal players no later than the end of the first week of class. This is so the director can attend your sectional if she chooses! Attendance at these sectionals is mandatory early in the concert cycle to assist in the learning of the concert repertoire.

Concert Attire

REGARDING CONCERT ATTIRE: Attire for all performers is a solid black long sleeve dress shirt, black slacks, tall black socks, and black closed toe shoes. Black pants only; no dresses or skirts for performances. All clothing for performers should be solid black.

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING REGARDING CONCERT ATTIRE: The purpose of proper concert attire is to provide the ensemble with a uniform appearance and to provide the audience an opportunity to focus on the musical performance occurring on stage, not the musicians’ concert dress. If you have any questions regarding proper concert attire, please feel free to ask Dr. Haddad in person after rehearsal. Thank you in advance for your consideration in this matter.

PERFORMANCE DATES:

- Sunday, Oct. 17 4:00 pm  Grand Ballroom
- Tuesday, Nov. 16 7:30 pm  Grand Ballroom

Academic Integrity (4.1)

Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.

Definition of Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one’s own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one’s paper without giving the author due credit. Please read the complete policy at http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/student-academic-dishonesty-4.1.pdf.
Withheld Grades Semester Grades Policy (5.5)

Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/policies/course-grades-5.5.pdf.

Students with Disabilities

To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

Mental Health and Wellness

SFA values students’ mental health and the role it plays in academic and overall student success. SFA provides a variety of resources to support students’ mental health and wellness. Many of these resources are free, and all of them are confidential.
