Media Law
MCOM 3306

Course Description:
Media Law. Study of communication law affecting the rights and duties of the press, including electronic media. Attention given to the First Amendment, libel, privacy, Freedom of Information Act, copyright, and obscenity. Prerequisite: Advanced standing.

Course Contact Hours and Study Hours:
MCOM 3306, Media Law (3 credits), typically meets either twice a week, three times a week, or online (meeting times align with university policy) for either 15 weeks or 7-8 weeks depending on the semester. Students have significant textbook reading assignments and are expected to have exams over all reading assignments, lectures, videos, etc. In addition, essay assignments are given for each module covered in the course. These activities average at minimum 6 hours of work each week to prepare outside of classroom hours.

Program Learning Outcomes:
1. Demonstrate the ability to write effectively across a variety of platforms appropriate the discipline.
2. Gather, organize and analyze discipline-appropriate research and communicate information about it.
3. Understand the role of media in society.
4. Comprehend legal and ethical principles relating to media.
5. Demonstrate the application of media technology, terminology and techniques.

Student Learning Outcome:
1. Students will be introduced to the major areas of media law. Landmark court cases will be emphasized.
2. Students will learn the importance of the First Amendment in media law.
3. Students will obtain an understanding of the U.S. Legal system.
4. Students will learn why it is important to consider ethical issues related to communication law.

Course Topics Disclaimer:
Controversial and provocative material relating to the First Amendment will be studied and discussed in this class. For face-to-face classes, if at any time you feel uncomfortable with the content of the discussion, you may step out of the classroom and wait in the hall until the class discussion moves to another topic. The professor will notify you when the discussion has concluded. As you discuss the class material, please remember that we are in a classroom setting and that you need to use language that is appropriate in a classroom setting. You should express your opinions and thoughts in a professional, educated, and courteous manner to your peers during all discussions face-to-face and online.

General Education Core Curriculum Objectives/Outcomes: n/a

Text and Materials:

Course Requirements:

1. Requirements include chapter reading quizzes (modifications pertaining to the number of exams will be made, if necessary, due to insufficient time during the semester). Quizzes will cover the chapters assigned per unit.

2. Unit Discussion Essays. Essay formats will vary from video essays to written essays depending upon the unit.

Additional Considerations Pertaining to Course Requirements:

1. Quizzes will cover material discussed in class, along with handouts, assigned chapters in text, etc. You should expect all types of questions, including short answer and essay.

2. Quizzes will also cover material that is reading material such as articles that the professor provides during the semester.

3. Prior to each reading quiz, you are encouraged to go to the textbook's companion website and take the practice quizzes for a review of the material.

4. There will be no opportunities allowed for extra credit in this course.

Grading Scale:

A = 100--90
B = 89--80
C = 79--70
D = 69--60
F = 59 and below

Grading Policy:

Exams = 60%
Discussion Essays = 35%
Post-test = 5%
TOTAL = 100%
NO ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED AFTER DUE DATE unless there are extenuating circumstances beyond your control such as a medical emergency, death in the family, documented illness, etc. Extra credit assignments may be given at the instructor’s discretion. Extra credit opportunities cannot be made-up, if missed. But, you may submit assignments earlier than the deadlines. Once you have submitted an assignment (even if you submitted it earlier than the deadline), you cannot redo the assignment. Assignments submitted earlier than the deadline will not be graded earlier than the deadline. Even if you mistakenly submit the wrong assignment initially, you will not be permitted to submit a different assignment. Thus, please ensure you upload the correct document the first time. You are also expected to provide correct links that work when providing assignments that are cloud based and/or on a video platform. If the link to your assignment does not work, you will not be able to correct that mistake after the assignment deadline passes.

Attendance Policy (see also SFA Policy 6.7):

This is an online course and, to be successful, it is expected that you log into the class regularly and explore and read all material that has been provided for you to learn about media law.

Academic Integrity:

The Code of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity outlines the prohibited conduct by any student enrolled in a course at SFA. It is the responsibility of all members of all faculty, staff, and students to adhere to and uphold this policy.

Articles IV, VI, and VII of the new Code of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity outline the violations and procedures concerning academic conduct, including cheating, plagiarism, collusion, and misrepresentation. Cheating includes, but is not limited to: (1) Copying from the test paper (or other assignment) of another student, (2) Possession and/or use during a test of materials that are not authorized by the person giving the test, (3) Using, obtaining, or attempting to obtain by any means the whole or any part of a non-administered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program, or using a test that has been administered in prior classes or semesters without permission of the Faculty member, (4) Substituting for another person, or permitting another person to substitute for one’s self, to take a test, (5) Falsifying research data, laboratory reports, and/or other records or academic work offered for credit, (6) Using any sort of unauthorized resources or technology in completion of educational activities.

Plagiarism is the appropriation of material that is attributable in whole or in part to another source or the use of one’s own previous work in another context without citing that it was used previously, without any indication of the original source, including words, ideas, illustrations, structure, computer code, and other expression or media, and presenting that material as one’s own academic work being offered for credit or in conjunction with a program course or degree requirements.

Collusion is the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing academic assignments offered for credit or collaboration with another person to commit a violation of any provision of the rules on academic dishonesty, including disclosing and/or distributing the contents of an exam.

Misrepresentation is providing false grades or résumés; providing false or misleading information in an effort to receive a postponement or an extension on a test, quiz, or other assignment for the purpose of obtaining an academic or financial benefit for oneself or another individual or to injure another student academically or financially.

Acceptable Student Behavior Policy (see also SFA Policy 10.4):

Classroom behavior should not interfere with the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to learn from the instructional program (see the Student Conduct Code). Unacceptable or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic or other penalties. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including electronic, classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. Students who do not attend class regularly or who perform poorly on class projects/exams may be referred to the Early Alert Program. This program provides students with recommendations for resources or other assistance that is available to help SFA students succeed.

Withheld Grades Policy (see also SFA Policy 5.5):

Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the coursework because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course to compute the grade point average. For additional information, go to https://www.sfasu.edu/policies/course-grades-5.5.pdf.

Students with Disabilities Policy (see also SFA Policy 6.1):

To obtain disability-related accommodations, alternate formats, and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004

(TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services promptly may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

Student Wellness and Well-Being:

SFA values students’ overall well-being, mental health and the role it plays in academic and overall student success. Students may experience stressors that can impact both their academic experience and their personal well-being. These may include academic pressure and challenges associated with relationships, emotional well-being, alcohol and other drugs, identities, finances, etc.

If you are experiencing concerns, seeking help, SFA provides a variety of resources to support students’ mental health and wellness. Many of these resources are free, and all of them are confidential.
