Course Description
An integrative overview of the esports industry in terms of scope and boundaries with a marketing focus. The course will cover topics specific to esport marketing including, but not limited to, unique aspects of the industry, spectator motivation, sponsorships, communication, analytics, and other current topics and events.

Program Learning Outcomes
Program learning outcomes define the knowledge, skills, and abilities students are expected to demonstrate upon completion of an academic program. These learning outcomes are regularly assessed to determine student learning and to evaluate overall program effectiveness. You may access the program learning outcomes for your major and particular courses at https://www.sfasu.edu/cob/ug-plo.asp.

Student Learning Outcomes
1. Identify the marketing, esports, and business terms and concepts that are significant within the fields of esports marketing, to be measured by performance on examinations.
2. Understand the ideas and reasoning that underlie these concepts, to be measured by performance on examinations.
3. Demonstrate how to apply and use these concepts in esport Marketing, and/or business, to be measured by performance on examinations and the term project.
4. Demonstrate preparation for entry into a career in esports Marketing, to be measured by overall performance in meeting the course requirements.

Text and Materials
All materials are to be provided via D2L.

Course Requirements:

Midterm and Final Exam
Alignment with Course Learning Objectives: #1, #2
Exams will primarily assess your knowledge of course concepts and your ability to perform certain specific skills specific to esport marketing. These exams will be made up of True/False, multiple choice, short answer, and essay questions. The exams will include material from the lectures, readings, and guest speakers. The final exam is not comprehensive.

Hot Topics in Esport Marketing: Paper and Presentation
Alignment with Student Learning Objectives: #1, #2
Each student will identify a current event, trend, topic, or issue in the esport industry using the Esport Observer, write a short summary about that trend/topic, and make a brief presentation in class. The assignment requires a 1-2 page summary with the following sections: (a) the current event, trend, topic, or issue, (b) how the trend/event may influence the esport industry, or, the manner in which the issue is being handled or the problem is being solved, and (c) your opinion of the event, trend, topic, or issue. The paper is due the day you give your presentation. You are also required to make a 10-minute oral presentation. Your presentation should include an overview of your paper and you should develop 4 questions related to the topic to ask your classmates via an open discussion format.
Stakeholder Analysis

Alignment with Student Learning Objectives: #1, #2, #3, #4.

During the semester, students will be required to watch an esport event of their choosing. Students will be required to provide an in-depth analysis of the stakeholders involved, in addition to creating a conceptual model of the interactions between them to showcase the creation of value and the flow of money. More details to be provided.

Weekly Activities

Alignment with Student Learning Objectives: #1, #2, #3.

For this to be a rewarding academic experience that is intellectually stimulating, everyone is required to contribute to the assigned in-class assignments/activities. This requires that students come to class prepared to participate in all in-class assignments actively/enthusiastically. Students will be evaluated on their contributions to the in-class assignments, in addition to the discussion that follows. Both the quality and quantity of the students’ work and contributions will be considered. In-class assignments are meant to be completed before the end of a particular class and are unable to be made up without appropriate documentation excusing the student from a missed class.

Esport Strategic Marketing Plan

Alignment with Student Learning Objectives: #1, #2, #3

The goal of the assignment is to complete a case study involving various stakeholders in the esports industry. More details to be provided.

Attendance Policy

Attendance in class is meant to benefit you the student. Exposure to content in class will contribute to your overall understanding of key concepts taught in the course, and therefore, attendance is expected. Each un-excused absence will result in a 5% deduction from your final grade. There is a formal process for student absences that meets requirements set forth by the institution and supports students who may have to miss classes for specified reasons. Students should follow the prescribed guidelines here to submit an absence request: https://www.sfasu.edu/thesub/sos/notification-request

Academic Integrity (4.1)

The Code of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity outlines the prohibited conduct by any student enrolled in a course at SFA. It is the responsibility of all members of all faculty, staff, and students to adhere to and uphold this policy.

Articles IV, VI, and VII of the new Code of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity outline the violations and procedures concerning academic conduct, including cheating, plagiarism, collusion, and misrepresentation. Cheating includes, but is not limited to: (1) Copying from the test paper (or other assignment) of another student, (2) Possession and/or use during a test of materials that are not authorized by the person giving the test, (3) Using, obtaining, or attempting to obtain by any means the whole or any part of a non-administered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program, or using a test that has been administered in prior classes or semesters without permission of the Faculty member, (4) Substituting for another person, or permitting another person to substitute for one’s self, to take a test, (5) Falsifying research data, laboratory reports, and/or other records or academic work offered for credit, (6) Using any sort of unauthorized resources or technology in completion of educational activities.

Plagiarism is the appropriation of material that is attributable in whole or in part to another source or the use of one’s own previous work in another context without citing that it was used previously, without any indication of the original source, including words, ideas, illustrations, structure, computer code, and other expression or media, and presenting that material as one’s own academic work being offered for credit or in conjunction with a program course or degree requirements.

Collusion is the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing academic assignments offered for credit or collaboration with another person to commit a violation of any provision of the rules on academic dishonesty, including disclosing and/or distributing the contents of an exam.

Misrepresentation is providing false grades or résumés; providing false or misleading information in an effort to receive a postponement or an extension on a test, quiz, or other assignment for the purpose of obtaining an academic or financial benefit for oneself or another individual or to injure another student academically or financially.

Withheld Grades Semester Grades Policy (5.5)

Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the coursework because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course to compute the grade point average. For additional information, go to https://www.sfasu.edu/policies/course-grades-5.5.pdf.

Students with Disabilities

To obtain disability-related accommodations, alternate formats, and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services promptly may delay your accommodations.
