Course Description
Demonstrate basic knowledge of applicable solo repertoire as well as fundamentals of piano pedagogy, and perform on an appropriately high level of technique.

Student Learning Outcomes
The student will work to improve performance skills and understanding of piano technique and musicianship. These skills will be developed in weekly lessons, practiced in studio class performances and evaluated at semester end by a jury of the faculty.

Applied Lesson Requirements:

MUAP 5109 (1/2 - hour lesson per week, 1 credit)
Required 10-minute, semester - end jury for the piano faculty with ALL music from memory. Student is expected to practice a half-hour to an hour daily, 6 days per week.

Lesson Attendance:
Regularity of lesson attendance will be a determining factor for the final semester grade.
- Lessons missed due to absence of the professor will be made up.
- Lessons missed due to student illness are normally made up.
- Random lesson time changes requested by the student for non-health reasons can not always be honored.
- Swap lesson times with another student in the class that week & inform the professor. (Edit your time slot on Google Calendar too)
- Lessons missed for official university holidays are NOT made up.

Grading:
Technic Requirement Test (10%), Listening Journals (10%), Attendances (Lesson + Studio) (10%), Lesson Preparations (20%) and Jury (50 %)

Academic Integrity:
Academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students. Faculty members promote academic integrity in multiple ways including instruction on the components of academic honesty, as well as abiding by university policy on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.
Definition of Academic Dishonesty
Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes but is not limited to (1) using or attempting to use unauthorized materials to aid in achieving a better grade on a component of a class; (2) the falsification or invention of any information, including citations, on an assigned exercise; and/or (3) helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Examples of plagiarism are (1) submitting an assignment as if it were one's own work when, in fact, it is at least partly the work of another; (2) submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from an Internet source or another source; and (3) incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one's paper without giving the author due credit.

Withheld Grades Semester Grades Policy:
Ordinarily, at the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the Academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically will become an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Students with Disabilities:
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations.
