COURSE DESCRIPTION
Continued study and application of the writing process and the skills of writing with a focus on the forms of argumentative writing and on research methods, such as gathering, evaluating, summarizing, synthesizing, and citing source information. Prerequisite: C in English 131. Must earn a C or higher to be admitted to any English 200-level course.

ENGLISH PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES
This is a general education core curriculum course and no specific program learning outcomes for this major are addressed in the course.

GENERAL EDUCATION CORE CURRICULUM
The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board has identified six core learning objectives: Critical Thinking Skills, Communication Skills, Empirical and Quantitative Skills, Teamwork, Personal Responsibility, and Social Responsibility. SFA is committed to the improvement of its general education core curriculum by regular assessment of student performance on these six objectives.

By enrolling in ENGL 1302, you are also enrolling in a Core Curriculum Course that fulfills the Communication Skills component area.

The chart below indicates: (a) The core objectives that are required to be taught in this course per the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB), (b) How the required core objectives will be addressed.

ENGL 1302 STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Locate, evaluate, and employ a variety of sources, accurately and ethically, in a multi-step, persuasive essay (Critical Thinking);
- Appraise and utilize a variety of standardized genre, discipline, medium, and occasion situation-specific conventions (Critical Thinking);
- Understand the role of personal responsibility in the inevitable choices involved in the composition process, in the evaluation of one’s own writing and the writing of other students, in the ethical use of ideas and information, and in the critical evaluation of all assigned texts (Personal Responsibility);
- Recognize the collaborative and social aspects of the writing process by producing collaborative work and/or feedback for peers and selectively using peer feedback in their own work (Teamwork);
- Demonstrate knowledge of organizational and linguistic structures – including grammar, punctuation, and spelling – through practice in composing and revising (Communication);
- Compose texts in response to a variety of situations and contexts calling for purposeful shifts in voice, tone, level of formality, design, medium, and/or structure (Communication).
CREDIT HOUR JUSTIFICATION

ENGL 1302 “Research and Argumentation” (3 credits; fully online) meets online for fifteen weeks during the semester as well as during finals week. Students complete weekly topical readings as well as writing and discussion activities related to those readings. Students write a minimum of four essays with a total page count of at least eighteen pages of finished writing. Emphasis is placed on writing and research processes, including multiple drafts and short assignments that require generating, revising and editing writing. Students conduct more library and online research than what is required in ENG 1301. Finals week is typically spent completing the final edits of one or more of the essays. These activities average nine hours of work each week.

REQUIRED TEXTS
None. Anything required for the class will be provided by me.

GRADES AND EVALUATION

I do not accept late work without documentation. I understand that because of the current pandemic, things are stressful and complicated; that being said, we are going into our second year of dealing with this. You cannot disappear for weeks and then expect me to let you make up the work you missed unless you have documentation to show for it. You cannot avoid doing your work all semester and then try to get it in at the last minute. If you need an extension or to make up work, email me and tell me what’s going on, provide documentation, and you’ll be able to turn in any missed assignments for the period listed on that documentation.

Assignments – each assignment is due by midnight on the due date. You must submit all major essays online to D2L. There will be a separate Dropbox folder in D2L for each major essay assignment. Further instructions for each assignment will be given at a later time. Late essays will be given -10 points for each day they are late; extensions may only be granted if you have an excusable absence. Instructions for each essay will be given as they are assigned. You will write four for this course:

- Summary & Response essays – due on January 28 and February 4, respectively.
- Literary Analysis essay – due on March 3.
- Annotated Bibliography - due on March 31.
- Research essay – due on April 28.

Quizzes – There will be quizzes. You will have a week to complete them. Any quizzes turned in after the due date will be graded from 50%.

Weekly Work – There will be discussions and weekly work. Any weekly work turned in after the due date will be graded from 50%.
Final Exam – Using the skills you’ve acquired over the course of the semester, you will write a final essay. Details and materials will be discussed as the date approaches. The final exam must be turned in by the due date to receive credit.

Extra Credit – A substantial visit to the AARC will award you five extra points to one major essay grade. If you aren’t on campus or don’t feel comfortable meeting a tutor face-to-face, you may use the online feedback tool on their D2L page. You must show me proof of your visit or online interaction in order to receive credit (a screenshot will be sufficient). Utilization of the resources available to you are an important part of your education. Throughout the semester, there will be other opportunities to gain extra credit. At any point in the semester, you may e-mail me the cutest photo of an otter you can find. That will award you 5 points on any essay of your choosing. I will keep a tally of who has sent it, and when you're ready to cash in those 5 points, just let me know. If you don't tell me where you'd like those points applied, I will add them where they'll do the most good.

Breakdown of Grades:
- Quizzes – 7.5%
- Weekly Work – 7.5%
- Summary – 5%
- Response – 5%
- Literary Analysis – 15%
- Annotated Bibliography – 20%
- Research – 25%
- Final Exam – 15%

ALL ASSIGNMENTS must adhere to MLA guidelines, meaning 1-inch margins on all sides, appropriate headers, double-spaced, written in 12-point Times New Roman, with Works Cited (if required) attached. Each assignment must meet the assignment requirements for page length and source requirement. Failing to do so will result in a SIGNIFICANT drop in your grade. Individual assignment sheets will be provided with further details.

According to university policy, your final grade for the course will consist of a letter grade only. Here is a general description of each letter grade:

A – Student meets and exceeds the expectations for the assignment. Writing demonstrates an understanding of all the key concepts needed to effectively complete the essay. Few, if any, grammatical and/or syntactical errors.

B – Student meets the expectations for the assignment. Writing demonstrates an understanding of most of the key concepts needed to effectively complete the essay. Few grammatical and/or syntactical errors.

C – Student meets the expectations for the assignment. Writing demonstrates a basic understanding of some of the key concepts needed to effectively complete the essay. Several grammatical and/or syntactical errors.
D – Student does not meet at least one expectation for the assignment. Writing demonstrates little understanding of the key concepts needed to effectively complete the essay. Many grammatical and/or syntactical errors.

F – Student does not meet most or all expectations for the assignment. Writing demonstrates little to no understanding of most of the key concepts needed to effectively complete the essay. Pages are missing or plagiarism may have occurred. Writing is incomprehensible with many grammatical and/or syntactical errors.

Grade evaluation may be discussed 48 hours after essays have been returned. I will not discuss it with you until the two-day window has passed.

WITHHELD GRADES – SEMESTER GRADES POLICY (A-54)
At the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic chair/director, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F. If students register for the same course in future terms the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average. For additional information, go to https://www.sfasu.edu/policies/course-grades-5.5.pdf.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
The Code of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity outlines the prohibited conduct by any student enrolled at SFA. It is the responsibility of all members of all faculty, staff, and students to adhere to and uphold this policy.

Articles IV, VI, and VII of the new Code of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity outline the violations and procedures concerning academic conduct, including cheating, plagiarism, collusion, and misrepresentation. Cheating includes, but is not limited to: (1) Copying from the test paper (or other assignment) of another student, (2) Possession and/or use during a test of materials that are not authorized by the person giving the test, (3) Using, obtaining, or attempting to obtain by any means the whole or any part of a non-administered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program, or using a test that has been administered in prior classes or semesters without permission of the Faculty member, (4) Substituting for another person, or permitting another person to substitute for one’s self, to take a test, (5) Falsifying research data, laboratory reports, and/or other records or academic work offered for credit, (6) Using any sort of unauthorized resources or technology in completion of educational activities.

Plagiarism is the appropriation of material that is attributable in whole or in part to another source or the use of one’s own previous work in another context without citing that it was used previously, without any indication of the original source, including words, ideas, illustrations, structure, computer code, and other expression or media, and presenting that material as one’s own academic work being offered for credit or in conjunction with a program course or degree requirements.
Collusion is the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing academic assignments offered for credit or collaboration with another person to commit a violation of any provision of the rules on academic dishonesty, including disclosing and/or distributing the contents of an exam.

Misrepresentation is providing false grades or résumés; providing false or misleading information in an effort to receive a postponement or an extension on a test, quiz, or other assignment for the purpose of obtaining an academic or financial benefit for oneself or another individual or to injure another student academically or financially.

The use of AI programs such as ChatGPT is prohibited for any graded assignment unless otherwise stated. The use of AI programs on graded assignments is considered plagiarism.

ACCEPTABLE STUDENT BEHAVIOR

A recent policy from the Provost’s Office states, “Classroom behavior should not interfere with the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to learn from the instructional program (see the Student Conduct Code, policy D-34.1). Unacceptable or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic or other penalties. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including electronic, classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. Students who do not attend class regularly or who perform poorly on class projects/exams may be referred to the Early Alert Program. This program provides students with recommendations for resources or other assistance that is available to help SFA students succeed.”

You will conduct yourselves in a respectful, professional manner. I don’t think I have to tell you this but be kind to your fellow students when you interact with them (and me).

DISCRIMINATION/SEXUAL HARASSMENT

At Stephen F. Austin State University, no faculty, staff, or student may discriminate against another on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, national origin, disability or disabled veteran status, and such acts will not be permitted in this class. For additional information, consult Human Resources for Policy E-46.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.
AARC
The AARC provides a variety of free academic support programs for students at SFA. Their services include 1:1 appointments, walk-in tables, online tutoring (through Zoom), learning teams, and SI. They also provide academic skills workshops upon request. They are available in-person Monday through Thursday, 8 am to 7 pm on the first floor of the library. For more information, visit sfasu.edu/aarc. Their contact information is as follows: (936) 468-4108, email – aarc@sfasu.edu.

STUDENT WELLNESS & WELL-BEING
SFASU values students’ mental health and the role it plays in academic and overall student success. Students may experience stressors that can impact both their academic experience and their personal well-being. These may include academic pressure and challenges associated with relationships, emotional well-being, alcohol and other drugs, identities, finances, etc.

If you are experiencing concerns and seeking help, SFA provides a variety of resources to support students’ mental health and wellness. Many of these resources are free, and all of them are confidential.
