VI. COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND POLICIES:

A. Required Textbooks, Materials, and Equipment –
Selected repertoire, technique and ensembles as assigned by the instructor
B. Attendance –
Regular and punctual attendance is required of all students. Absenteeism due to Stephen F. Austin sponsored trips, concerts, or illness accompanied by a note from your physician will be excused at the discretion of the instructor. However, the student is expected to notify the instructor well in advance of any anticipated absence. The instructor will inform the student in advance if he is to be absent, and will arrange for a make-up lesson. The instructor is not obligated to render make-up lessons due to student absence. Over three un-excused absences per semester will lower students’ final grade one letter.
C. Practice Requirements
Minimum required practice time coincides with number of credit hours.
   One hour credit requires five hours of individual practice per week.
   Two hour credit requires ten hours of individual practice per week

VII. EVALUATION AND GRADING:

A. Grading Criteria
Studio grades are based on attendance, attitude, technical and artistic improvement, and mastery of repertoire.
B. Determination of Grade
Semester grades are determined by averaging the student’s studio grade, studio class grade, recital attendance, and final jury examination (required of all students unless otherwise designated by instructor). 90-100=A, 80-89=B, 70-79=C, 60-69=D, 59 >=F.

VIII. Students with Disabilities
To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 468-3004 / 468-1004 (TDD) as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations.
